Reds Capture Fortress Baltic Port of Elbing

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Russian assault troops captured the Baltic fortress port of Elbing guarding the path to Danzig today, and to the northeast closed on Koenigsberg, Junkers' province capital. Elbing lies 32 miles southeast of Danzig itself, and is on the right bank of the Vistula river. Marshal Stalin announced its fall in an order of the day.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—Soviet tanks driving a wedge between Berlin and the Silesian industrial capital of Breslau have smashed deep into the main German defences more than 25 miles beyond the Oder river, the Nazis conceded today.

North of Berlin, other Russian forces pushed to within 25 miles or less of the Baltic port of Stettin in a drive to seal off tens of thousands of enemy troops in northeast Germany, the Polish corridor and Danzig.

The Soviet high command threw a cloak of secrecy over the Berlin front itself, but field dispatches told of fierce fighting in Kuestrin and the suburbs of Frankfurt and Fuerstenberg, main anchors of the Oder river line 33 to 42 miles from the bomb-wrecked capital.

DEEP PENETRATION

Ernest von Hammer, military commentator for the official German DNB agency, disclosed that Russian armored spearheads 120 miles southeast of Berlin had "penetrated" the German front.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—An earthquake and one of the largest forces of Superfortresses ever to hit Japan rocked Tokyo in quick succession today.

The earthquake shook northern and central Japan at 1:50 p.m. Tokyo time, a Japanese Domei broadcast said. Neither the intensity of the shock nor the extent of damage was indicated.

The Marianas-based B-29s, which the Japanese said hit the capital at 2:30 p.m., achieved "good to excellent results" in the Tokyo area, a spokesman at 21st Bomber Command headquarters on Guam reported.

"Some damage" was caused to ground installations, a Japanese communiqué said. A war department bulletin issued in Washington

5th Army Patrols Clash With Nazis

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
ROME, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—Fifth Army patrols engaged in a number of sharp clashes as increased enemy opposition was encountered along the entire front, headquarters said today.

Light bombers of the Mediterranean Allied tactical air force attacked motor transport and rail traffic over wide areas of northern Italy Wednesday night. Operations were cancelled yesterday because of weather conditions.

Coastal aircraft bombed targets in northwest Italy and heavy bombers continued their campaign against German fuel sources by attacking an oil target in Austria.

Milder Weather To Continue Here

Fair and mild weather is forecast for the Edmonton area Saturday, with the estimated high temperature 35 above zero.

Maximum temperature on Friday was 33 above, and the minimum 18 above. The overnight low was 16 above, and at 2 p.m. it was 22 above. Estimated overnight low is 20, and the estimated high tomorrow, 37.

It Says Here

by Bob Hope

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 10.—It used to be whenever you stepped off a train you could figure on seeing a couple of Redcaps stage a brawl that would make them rich at Madison Square Garden, and all for the privilege of carrying your bag and picking up that quarter tip. These days you have a dollar bill under a Redcap's nose and he treats it as though it were some kind of green cleansing tissue. Yes, sir, they don't fight for the work anymore. They say, "See my agent and make an appointment." The Redcaps have so much money they don't wear red caps anymore. They are pink fedoras with emerald bands.

One thing to be said for the Redcaps though, they do try to help the weaker sex as much as possible. But sometimes even that doesn't do me any good. One fellow came into the station with a gladstone bag and the Redcap refused to carry it until Gladstone got out. The other day in New York I carried six heavy bags all the way through Grand Central station by myself. They were pretty heavy but the tips were worth it. When I got off the train in Tampa a Redcap ran up, grabbed my bags, stacked them on my shoulders and said, "Follow me." I finally got one to carry them for me. When he got all the stuff in the taxi and I tipped him, he said "Boy, just wait until my wife hears who I carried suitcases for." I asked, "What would she say?" He replied, "She'll probably tell me to go back and get the rest of the money."

Glen Williams Suffers First Bonspiel Loss

Glen Williams' crew from Calgary, last of the unbeaten rinks in the Alberta Curling Association's 28th annual bonspiel, suffered their first defeat of the 'spiel on the 9 a.m. draw Saturday by losing 9-7 to J. Barth of Millet in the Calgary Brewing (Visitors) event.

The highly rated Calgary skip had posted 12 straight wins before dropping his initial game at Alberta Avenue this morning. C. A. Runyon, of Viking, who was undefeated up to yesterday, dropped his third straight match on the early draw when he lost 11-2 to W. W. Rose of Sedgewick and was eliminated from the Visitors' competition. It was Rose's 12th win in 14 games.

FOURS FILLED

The two remaining brackets in the fours of the King Edward event were filled this morning as E. B. Olsen of Royal and A. M. Daigleish won in the eight to advance into the semi-finals. Olsen won 7-6 from W. Gutowski, Daysland, at Alberta Avenue and Daigleish knocked A. Aspel of Pouce Coupe out of that competition. The other two rinks in the semi-finals are those skipped by Glen Williams and R. L. Hanbigue of Kerrobert.

All other games on the early draw were in the 32s and 16s of the Gas Company and Visitors.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Vicente Lombardo Toledano of Mexico City, president of the Latin American Federation of Labor, told the World Trade Union Conference today that Argentina was arming "and the only possible reason is to create an armed conflict." He charged that German money and technicians were being used in Argentina.

Curtail Imports Powdered Eggs

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(Reuters)—Imports of dehydrated or powdered eggs to Great Britain, which were tried as war measure, are to be severely curtailed, it was learned today. They were found uneconomical as soon as the shipping position improved. Moreover, British housewives have shown dogged reluctance to accept dehydrated eggs, although unrationed.

Worst Mud of War

Canadians, Britons Slog Through Ooze Foot Deep

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—Gen. H. D. G. Crerar's Canadian troops reached the Rhine at Millingen, and United Kingdom forces under his command breached the enemy's main Siegfried line defences near Kleve after slogging through the worst mud of the war, reports from the front said today.

Advancing over a countryside criss-crossed by thousands of ditches and dykes the Canadians and Britons were almost always foot-deep in ooze, and often sinking in as far as the waist. Sometimes it took three men to pull one out.

Mud clogs their clothes, gets into their weapons, and is splashed into their mess tins of tea by passing vehicles which, when bogged, must be bulldozed out of the way.

Everybody is helping to get wheels going or clearing shattered roads in a region where roads are few. In one case a brigadier gave an order: "Even if my jeep gets stuck you must blow it up and take no notice of my complaints."

The Reichswald forest is a gloomy and dripping wilderness of scrub and pine trees through which slime and muck-covered troops in grey mist pushed on like wraiths.

The accomplishment of the Canadian and United Kingdom men represents as much in effort and sheer dogged courage as in territorial gains.

Says CCF Election Promises Being Charged to Taxpayers

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Finance Minister Hiesley last night charged the CCF government of Saskatchewan with trying to get all Canadian taxpayers to pay the cost of its election promises and announced Saskatchewan's request for an arbitral tribunal under the Dominion-provincial tax agreement is under consideration.

Replying to statements on the seed grain loan controversy by Premier T. C. Douglas and M. J. Coldwell, federal CCF leader, the minister denied there had been any default by the Dominion under the agreement.

The request for an arbitral tribunal was based on the claim that Mr. Hiesley had no right to offset money due to Saskatchewan under the agreement against federal claims on the seed grain matter which Saskatchewan disputes.

The Dominion-provincial tax agreement provided for the Dominion, during the war, taking over the entire income and corporation tax field and paying to the province an amount to compensate them for loss of revenue from these taxes.

"It is raining again today, but there is a possibility that the weather may clear as it did late yesterday afternoon," Downs said. "Then the swarms of Typhoons and medium and fighter bombers can get to work. The Canadian First Army offensive continues to go well."

Alberta Soldiers Use 'Diplomacy' On Germans—Bren and Sten Guns

By DOUGLAS AMARON

WITH THE 1ST CANADIAN ARMY, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Battle highlights of the 1st Canadian Army offensive:

Canadian soldiers who died in the capture of the German frontier village of Wyler, about six miles southeast of Nijmegen, Holland, will be buried on Netherland soil.

The commanding officer of the Western Canada Highland Battalion which captured the village gave orders for bodies of soldiers killed to be brought back across the border.

"I don't want to bury any of my men in Germany until necessary," he explained.

One of the final clean-up jobs in Wyler was done by Sgt. "Mel" Melnychuk of Edmonton and six men of his platoon. They routed 18 Germans from a house as prisoners and killed nine.

"We used a little diplomacy on them—Bren and Sten guns and grenades," he explained.

While other troops provided covering fire, Melnychuk and his men charged the house. One private, wounded by a sniper, kept going and the only way the sergeant could prevent him continuing to fight was to send him back with the prisoners.

"I thought there were only four or five Germans in the house when the first one came out with a white flag," Melnychuk said, "but out they poured, one after another, until there were 18. It was like money from home."

Ankara Report Says Kleve, West Wall Anchor, Captured

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(CP)—The CBS short wave listening post today recorded a broadcast from Ankara radio that said "the town of Kleve has been captured by Canadian forces." The broadcast quoted "a report received today."

By JAMES M. LONG

PARIS, Feb. 10.—(AP)—First Canadian Army troops, bursting through the main concrete belt of the Siegfried line in the Reichswald, struck today to within three miles of Kleve, while the Germans flooded the Roer river on the United States 9th Army front through gushing spillways of the Schwammenauel dam.

Canadians and British forces, gaining two more miles, were assaulting earthworks of the Siegfried's secondary defence in a power drive rolling toward the outskirts of Kleve, northern anchor of the original westwall.

Other units battled in the Rhine town of Millingen, six miles northwest of Kleve, in the army's swift-developing thrust to slice behind the Rhine and the rich Ruhr industrial area.

OPEN FLOODGATES

Waters of the lower Roer river, along which the American 9th army is arrayed, rose a foot and a half in an hour at some points as the Germans opened floodgates of the Schwammenauel dam impounding 170,000,000 tons of water.

The threat of such a flood had prevented the 9th and 1st armies from attempting to cross the Roer since they reached it east of Aachen last November.

United States 1st Army infantrymen upstream reached one side of the great dam today and prepared to go on across to clinch its capture.

The Germans had opened the valves on the north side of the 1,080-foot long structure, whose pen-up power if released all at once might send an 18-foot tide storming down the Roer valley. Built of earth around a concrete core, the dam is

Canuck Attack Is Well Ahead Of Schedule

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—The Canadian 1st Army offensive "is well ahead of schedule," Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent Bill Downs reported this morning from the northern sector of the western front.

Downs said that elements of three enemy divisions were met and defeated in the initial assault, and that the Canadian 1st Army was moving reinforcements into the area, and it was expected that the Nazis will stiffen up and that the going will become more difficult.

"It is raining again today, but there is a possibility that the weather may clear as it did late yesterday afternoon," Downs said. "Then the swarms of Typhoons and medium and fighter bombers can get to work. The Canadian First Army offensive continues to go well."

The buildings will be remodelled to form private rooms for married couples, class rooms and dormitories. The entire plant will be available for training purposes by Oct. 1st.

All agricultural training under the Veterans' Land Act will be available at the centre and will include courses in soils and crops, livestock, including dairying, poultry and beekeeping, farm mechanics and farm management.

No Statement After Cabinet Meeting Ends

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—(CP)—The cabinet held its longest meeting of the week yesterday but no announcement on a decision on the political questions left hanging in the air by the Gray North by-election result.

All indications pointed to the fact that Prime Minister Mackenzie King is not rushing a decision, which now puts the probable date of the general election off to the middle or end of April at the earliest. Earlier forecasts which placed the latest probable date at the end of June still stand, however.

EARLIEST DATE

As 60 days must elapse between the announcement of an election and voting day, the earliest possible date for the general election now is April 13.

The Canadian Press was informed that Mr. King will make no statement on political matters during the remainder of this week.

There was a large attendance of ministers at the cabinet meeting which lasted nearly three hours.

In the offices of the National War Finance Committee preparations are going forward for a spring victory loan with a campaign opening at the end of April. They have had no instructions yet to shift the date of the loan, although it is accepted that a loan campaign and an election campaign would not go well together.

Blizzard in U.S. Takes 14 Lives

BOSTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—With a death toll of 14 and damage amounting into millions, New England last night was digging itself out of its worst blizzard since the St. Valentine's day storm of 1940.

A record fall of snow, ranging up to 17 inches in Boston, shut stores and schools and left most war plants limping on sparse manpower.

Transportation, almost paralyzed for 24 hours, was wheezing along in low gear. Highways were flecked with stalled automobiles, abandoned by their owners. Soldiers answered a railroad appeal to shovel out switches.

Thousands of commuters trekked homeward after spending Thursday night in police stations, railroad terminals and hotel lobbies.

Three fishing dragnets, each valued at $70,000, were pulled from their moorings in Gloucester. One sank, a second was dashed against a breakwater; the third was swept out to sea. As far as was known no one was aboard the vessels.

Charged With Theft

Alleged to have taken a package of shelled nuts and then starting away from a downtown store without paying for them, John F. Litzberger of Edmonton was placed under arrest about 5:30 p.m. Friday and charged with theft, according to city police.

Prof. F. Scott Made Member Tax Tribunal

By JAMES McCOOK
REGINA, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Prof. Frank Scott, of Montreal, CCF national chairman, was named by the Saskatchewan government today as its member of a three-man tribunal to determine whether the Dominion government has violated the Dominion-provincial wartime tax agreement by withholding payment of $582,331 due Jan. 31.

The money was withheld by the Dominion in part payment of a $1,468,832 seed grain debt which federal Finance Minister Bailey has sought to collect from the province under proposals rejected by the provincial administration.

Provincial Treasurer Fines announced the appointment of Dr. Scott with the comment that the Saskatchewan member of the tribunal was professor of constitutional law at McGill University and was recognized as a leading authority on constitutional matters.

STUDY REQUEST
In a statement issued at Ottawa last night, Mr. Hiley said the Saskatchewan request for a tribunal was under consideration.

Under the agreement either of the parties may have a reference made to a tribunal in respect to the interpretation of the provisions the Dominion government has the right to name a member and the third may be a person acceptable to both parties. If they fail to agree, the third member may be appointed by the Chief Justice of Canada.

In a letter to Mr. Hiley this week, the provincial government said it considered the agreement had been violated when the payment due under the agreement was withheld.

Berlin Claims Canuck Forces Across Rhine

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(CP)—A Berlin broadcast claimed last night Canadian assault forces had crossed the Rhine at Erlecom, east of Nijmegen, and were being sealed off "and subjected to heavy concentrated fire."

The crossings were made in 20 assault boats, eight of which were sunk, the broadcast claimed.

The Canadians for months have been across the Rhine north of Nijmegen, only four miles west of the reported crossing, and any such attempt might be designed to cut in behind the enemy lines.

The Canadians still would have to cross the Neder Rhine in any eastward advance. The Neder and Waal meet four miles north-east of Erlecom.

Declared Peace May Finish War

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(CP)—A means of ending the war through a declaration of peace if the Germans fail to surrender may be under consideration at the big three conference, informed quarters suggested today.

Supporting this possibility was Prime Minister Churchill's statement in a recent House of Commons war review that the Allies would fight the German army until resistance ceases but at some point may declare the war at an end and treat holdout Nazis as guerrillas.

Various roundabout reports have said that the Germans already are storing food and war equipment in the central German hills for a last-ditch guerrilla stand. Such last resistance groups might face death as outlaws within their own country, for guerrillas normally are not accorded military rights.

Germany's own history in this war provides a precedent for such a procedure. After Polish forces had been thoroughly disorganized in Germany's invasion of Poland those fighting behind German lines were branded as guerrillas.

Some Canadians Receive Cables Under New Plan

TORONTO, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Some cables have been received in Canada from Canadian prisoners-of-war and civilian internees in the Far East in accordance with a plan for free cable service inaugurated by the Red Cross. Dr. Fred W. Routley, national commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross, said today.

Next-of-kin of prisoners-of-war and internees may receive and send one cable a year under plans worked out by the International Red Cross and the various governments concerned.

Dominion Fourth Nation to Accept Two Air Freedoms

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Canada today became the fourth country to accept the "Two Freedoms" international civil aviation agreement signed at the International Civil Aviation conference which met in Chicago before Christmas.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced that L. B. Pearson, Canadian ambassador to the United States, has been authorized to inform the United States government of the Canadian government's acceptance.

Other countries which have accepted are the United States, the Netherlands and Norway but 28 countries in all have signed without indicating acceptance by their governments.

More than 800,000,000 tons of coal are mined in the United States every year.

CLOSE ON PRUEM

Still farther south United States 3rd Army troops fought within 1/2 of a mile of the Siegfried prize of Pruem, and scored advances today of up to a mile northeast and south west of the road hub Germans resisted desperately.

As far as could be told immediately the Canadian thrust was a complete breach of the main pillbox line guarding Kieve, which the Germans had made the original northern anchor of the whole Siegfried chain.

Nuetterden, on the main Nijmegen-Kieve road about three miles west of Kieve, fell to the Canadian onrush in a two-mile drive beyond Kranenberg. The Allied troops were well beyond the town on the last few thousand yards to the outskirts of Kieve this morning.

BROADEN FRONT

The Canadian and British troops gained almost five miles and broadened their front to nearly 10 miles yesterday on the second day of their new offensive. The total number of towns captured mounted to 14.

As Gen. Crerar's troops pushed eastward, 27 miles from Wesel at the northeast corner of the Ruhr valley, the United States 1st Army, 85 miles to the south outflanked the giant Schwammenauel dam, part of the Roer river system.

Striking behind one of the heaviest barrages ever laid down by its artillery units, Lt.-Gen. Courtney Hodges' troops captured Hasenfeld, less than a mile east of the dam.

Farther south the United States 3rd Army fought within 1/2 of a mile of the German fortified communication centre of Pruem. Other 3rd Army forces less than six miles to the north threatened to outflank Pruem by forcing two crossings of the Pruem river. Other units fought into Hermesland, two miles north-east of Pruem on the river.

WESTERN SUCCESS

Gen. Crerar's forces were well into the Reichswald, a dense fir forest shielding Kieve, northern anchor of the permanent defences of the Siegfried line. Inside the forest the Germans were putting up their stiffest resistance.

(Douglas Amarion, Canadian Press war correspondent, in a front dispatch Friday said western Canada Highlanders occupied the German village of Niel, about six miles southeast of Nijmegen.)

(In another dispatch, Amarion reported that the Netherlands-German frontier village of Wyler, about four miles southeast of Nijmegen, was the first conquest on German soil for western Canada Highlanders. The Highlanders, who took the village Thursday, were out of the battle for the time being, he added.)

Italy Asks Easier Armistice Terms

ROME, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Premier Ivanhoe Bonomi has telegraphed the "Big Three" conference asking that the Allied armistice terms for Italy be relaxed, it was learned authoritatively last night.

The premier's appeal was understood to be similar to one made by Foreign Minister Alcide de Gasperi to Harry Hopkins when President Roosevelt's adviser visited Rome recently on his way to the "Big Three" meeting.

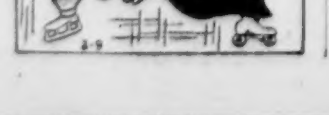

De Gasperi asked Mr. Hopkins for a revision of the financial clauses in the armistice as well as removal of Allied control over Italy where it did not directly concern military problems.

The Italian government has asserted recently that the nation's economy is unable to bear the strain of the financial burden imposed by the armistice and has asked repeatedly for an end to Allied control of administrative affairs.

"Man of Steel" Himmler Holds Lid On Reich

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
LONDON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Heinrich Himmler and his Gestapo held down the lid today on a Germany heaving under increasing invasion blows from east and west.

Reports from continental sources, including Berlin itself, gave a picture of Nazi fanatics battling chaos in anticipation of a last-ditch fight within the imperilled capital and beyond that in the innermost reaches of the country.

Himmler, emerging as the Nazis "man of steel," called upon the besieged garrison of Schneidmühl to hold that stronghold "for me."

This message, broadcast by the German DNB agency, made no mention of Hitler, but another DNB dispatch said that on Himmler's recommendation Hitler had decorated two Elite Guardsmen for heroism in fighting the Russians.

SAY DEFENCE REFUSED
A rumor circulating in Copenhagen said German generals had refused to defend Berlin in accordance with orders already issued, the Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet said.

The Paris radio said foreign slave workers who had escaped provided the capital, attacking the Germans from bomb-ruined buildings.

The Moscow radio quoted Japanese matches as saying Berlin bus and subway services had ceased and that food supplies were so scanty further refugees had been forbidden to enter the city.

MINISTERS REMOVED

The Luxembourg radio said all government ministers had left the city but that Nazi party and army headquarters remained.

From Turkey came reports that, even while preparing for an all-out defence of Berlin, Himmler was organizing a German "Maquis" which he would command personally in a last stand in southern Germany and Austria.

The Turkish reports placed the probable final resistance centres in the Black Forest, Thuringia, Northern Bavaria and the Tyrol and the forested areas of Austria. The German underground organization was said already to total 120,000 men, with a total strength of 700,000 expected.

A Danish patriot escaping to Sweden said on the basis of his three weeks underground in Germany he believed German railways had coal supplies sufficient for only two or three more weeks.

He said refugee trains were so packed passengers could not move and at one station he saw 10 children who had frozen to death in the intense cold.

Difficult Dispute Unsnarles Itself At Labor Parley

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(Reuters)—A difficult dispute unsnarled itself at the world trade union conference yesterday as the Russian delegates and their supporters withdrew, in deference to their British hosts.

The standing orders committee, which Thursday handed down a decision to invite representations from former enemies, Italy, Bulgaria, Finland and Hungary—made it clear yesterday that the Russian majority, though still considering the demand for a "Lublin" representation justified, had dropped it for the sake of unity.

Canadians Expect Hardest Fighting In Present Drive

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Canadian troops, after patrols around the German positions they now are overrunning, anticipated their "hardest fight" of the western Europe campaign when the time came to strike into the Reichswald, Maurice Desjardins, Canadian Press war correspondent, said on arrival here yesterday.

"I interviewed men of a French-speaking regiment," Desjardins said, "after a patrol into the thick fir trees of that forest and they said it was going to be a hard nut to crack. They found the Germans just as well entrenched as they had been around the Caen perimeter, just as well equipped and with the additional asset of the wooded terrain."

In view of this, he said, the moderate resistance the Canadians have so far encountered would come as a "surprise."

Refusal of Seamen To Sail Is Probed

HALIFAX, Feb. 10.—(CP)—A court of inquiry has been held by the Canadian section of the British ministry of war transport here into the refusal of 57 seamen to go to sea aboard three Great Lakes tankers. Certain recommendations have been sent to London. The seamen said the facts regarding the "age and condition" of the vessels had been misrepresented to them before they left the old country for Canada.

Men, Ships Lost Long-Range German Subs Strike Off Canada's Coast

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
HALIFAX, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—German long-range submarines, in an apparent 11th-hour attempt to cut the Allied supply line across the northern Atlantic, have sunk seven Allied ships, six of them off the Nova Scotia coast within a 22-day period, it was announced today. Two of the seven ships sunk were Canadian.

One of them was the Canadian minesweeper Clayquod, loss of which was revealed by naval authorities on Jan. 31. Another Canadian ship, a merchantman, was also among the seven ships sent to the bottom.

The sinking claimed 73 lives, eight of which were lost when the Clayquod was attacked. One of the freighters went down with its captain.

He was identified as Capt. E. H. "Bob" Robinson, of Halifax. Survivors said that the 37-year-old officer was last seen on the bridge of his freighter directing abandonment operations.

The lost ship was his first command and this was his second voyage aboard the ill-fated craft. The freighter was sunk while on its way from New York to an eastern Canadian port.

RECENT ACTIONS

While the 22-day period was not identified by the censors who permitted disclosure of the sinkings, it was presumed that they occurred recently, since such speculation would be up with a speech made by General MacNaughton a few weeks ago wherein he said that the North Atlantic was "alive with German submarines" and that "we are having ships sunk day by day."

Officials said more than 200 survivors were landed at east coast ports, some of whom required hospital treatment for exposure and injuries.

Survivors said that the Nazi submarine commanders returned to east coast attacks with a vengeance evidently borne of desperation. The Nazis operated within sight of the Nova Scotia shore at times and one group of survivors told of an attack on their convoy in broad daylight.

The survivors also said that the Germans did not, as usual, lurk behind the convoy picking off stragglers, but boldly attacked escort vessels and then turned their torpedoes on the unprotected merchantmen.

Edmonton Airman Blows Up German Plane in Attack

WITH CANADIANS FLYING WITH THE RAF, Feb. 10.—When the Canadian crew of "J for Johnnie," night fighter, Mosquito, PO, Kirkwood, DFC, of Edmonton, Alberta, and PO, Colin Matheson, DFC, of Winnipeg, recent spotted an aircraft flashing navigation lights over Northwestern Germany, they went in to attack at 300 m.p.h. As they swept toward the aircraft the pilot recognized it as a JU 88.

The Hun caught the force of the Mosquito's cannon shells as it taxied on its own field. Some of the shells hit the wing-roots and fuselage; others tore into the cockpit; then suddenly the German plane exploded.

About a quarter of an hour later "J for Johnnie" went down to attack a military lorry. It blew up in a brilliant flash which lit up trees by the side of the road and enabled PO, Kirkwood to pull up just in time.

U.K. Airmen Using New Type Bomb

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(CP)—British airmen are using a new type of anti-personnel bomb with considerable success in support of the last Canadian Army drive on the northern flank of the western front, it was disclosed yesterday.

The new type consists of a number of small fragmentation bombs in a single casing, which are scattered in all directions when the casing explodes. The bomb was said to be useful in breaking up troop concentrations when dropped by fighter-bombers at low altitudes.

British Advancing Toward Mandalay

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
KANDY, Ceylon, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—British troops captured the strategic village of Kule and high ground to the northeast to expand their bridgehead on the east bank of the Irrawaddy 30 miles north of Mandalay, a southeast Asia communiqué said.

At the same time, 14th Army troops driving eastward toward Mandalay cleared the triangular area between the confluence of the Irrawaddy and Chindwin rivers and Nabet.

Along the coastal sector of western Burma, 15th Indian Corps troops captured the town of Ramree and Ramree Island, while West African forces on shore drove within seven miles of a junction with 27th Division troops holding a road block at Kangaw.

STRONG FORCE

The spokesman at Guam said the force was among the largest ever to bomb Japan, indicating that it numbered more than 100 raiders. Tokyo estimated its strength at 90 planes.

Domei said the Superfortresses attacked the northern "Kanto district," embracing Tokyo and Yokohama, in five formations, but "best a hasty retreat" in the face of "stiff opposition" from Japanese fighters.

The earthquake a little more than a half hour earlier was felt from Hokkaido, northernmost of the Japanese home islands, down through Honshu, Domei said.

All eastern and central Honshu, including the Tokyo-Yokohama area, were shaken, Domei said, quoting an announcement of the central meteorological observatory.

Nazi Jet-Planes Battle Air Fleet

By HOWARD COWAN
LONDON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A force of 1,300 United States heavy bombers, guarded by almost 900 fighters, faced the greatest challenge of German jet-planes yesterday and escaped with a loss of 19 bombers and three fighters.

The Germans, using new tactics to forestall the American aerial blows, sent up jet-propelled Messerschmitt 262s which flashed in and out of the bomber formations, literally flying rings around the heavy craft.

Baffled gunners aboard the heavy bombers failed to shoot down any of these attackers, flying at a speed of 10 miles a minute, but escorting fighter pilots knocked down five of the jets.

Eighteen ordinary-type Messerschmitt and Focke-Wulf fighters also were blasted from the sky and 41 German planes were destroyed on the ground.

the seed grain debt had completely failed," Mr. Isley said. "For several months I corresponded with Premier Douglas and Mr. Fines, the provincial treasurer, but without result. Every offer I made was rejected out of hand. My requests for information about the financial position of the province were met with inadequate and evasive answers."

MET WITH THREATS

"When I asked the province to fulfil its obligations to the Dominion under the seed grain agreement, I was met with threats. First it was a threat to stop collections from the farmers and municipalities and to return moneys already collected by the municipalities, which in fact belonged to the Dominion government."

"Then it was a threat that even though the province gave treasury bills acknowledging the debt, these would be regarded by Saskatchewan as never payable—"

mere scraps of paper. Next, it was a threat to default on the provincial public debt.

"Now it is a threat to withdraw from the taxation agreement. Under the circumstances, I had either to take such measures for collection as were available to me or accept the fact that the Saskatchewan government can, if it so desires, discard its obligations to the Dominion and to the Canadian taxpayers."

SPEAKS OF CONFIDENCE

"Mr. Coldwell speaks of re-establishing confidence in present or future Dominion-provincial agreements. Can there be confidence in Dominion-provincial agreements if a provincial government is permitted to violate the terms of a solemn undertaking to the Dominion government?"

"What could be more damaging to sound relationships between the Dominion and the provinces than an unchallenged and successful attempt by a provincial government to avoid carrying out its obligations to the Dominion government and the Canadian taxpayer? Would the Dominion government be justified in assuming obligations towards a provincial government which took such an attitude with respect to its obligations to the Dominion?"

Commenting on Mr. Coldwell's statement that the action of the Dominion in exercising its right to set off was "absolutely without legal authority, and without moral right," Mr. Isley said, "Mr. Coldwell evidently believes that Dominion-provincial agreements are binding on the Dominion government but not on the Saskatchewan government."

Russian Church Charges Vatican Condone Fascism

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The Russian Orthodox Church, in a statement broadcast by the Moscow radio last night, accused the Vatican of condoning fascism by attempting to excuse Germany for its crimes.

The statement was issued by churchmen gathered in Moscow to elect the new patriarch, Alexei. It declared that the delegates "lift their voices against the efforts of those, particularly the Vatican, who attempting in their utterances to absolve Hitler Germany from responsibility for all the abominable deeds she has committed and pleading for mercy for the Hitlerites who drenched all Europe in the blood of innocent victims, are thereby seeking in our estimation to allow the continued existence on earth after the war of misanthropic, unchristian fascist doctrine and its agents."

Mr. Douglas between provincial, corporation and personal income taxes prior to the taxation agreement and Dominion revenues collected in Saskatchewan in 1943-44 are without point," Mr. Isley said.

"Both the province and the Dominion were collecting corporation and personal income taxes before the agreement came into effect, the Dominion collections in Saskatchewan being approximately $1,739,224 during the fiscal year 1940-41. Even if the province had not agreed to vacate the field, Dominion revenues in Saskatchewan would have risen rapidly; as rates were increased and conditions improved."

"One of the chief purposes of the taxation agreement was to protect the position of the provinces which would otherwise have been forced to continue to levy personal and corporation taxes on top of and in addition to high wartime taxes of the same kind by the Dominion."

FAVORABLE ARRANGEMENT

"Saskatchewan entered into a particularly favorable arrangement, being guaranteed approximately $5,830,000 annually, which includes the net cost of paying interest on provincial debt in 1940, and a fiscal net subsidy of $1,500,000. This payment is almost three times the revenues of the province from corporation and income taxes in the base year, which were $2,092,922."

"The Dominion also guaranteed the province its revenues from provincial gasoline tax, paying $125,762 to Saskatchewan on this account in 1943-44."

Summarizing steps which led up to the Dominion exercising its right to set off, Mr. Isley said, "On January 23rd, in accordance with the terms of the 1938 seed grain agreement, I asked the Saskatchewan government to deliver serial treasury bills for amounts totalling $16,468,852, one of which was to be for $609,972, payable January 31st."

"The province refused to comply, delivering instead a single treasury bill for $16,468,852 payable on demand. This bill was presented for payment in Regina, in accordance with its terms, but payment was not made. I thereupon notified the province that the whole amount was due and payable, but that the Dominion would be satisfied with payment by instalments."

IMMEDIATE PAYMENT

"The first of these was to be an immediate payment of $609,972. My letter made it clear that unless the province made this payment at once the instalment under the taxation agreement due on January 31st and a portion of the instalment due on April 30th would be retained in respect of it."

"Meanwhile the January 31st instalment, amounting to $582,331, was withheld. This was a temporary measure pending receipt of cash from Saskatchewan. No payment having been received from Saskatchewan, the January 31st instalment has now been paid and set off against the seed grain liability."

"There was therefore no default under the taxation agreement."

Mr. Isley said the taxation agreement provides that if an arbitral tribunal were appointed and came to the conclusion that the Dominion has failed to observe any of the provisions of the agreement and the Dominion did not rectify the situation, the province might terminate the agreement, in which case the Dominion is required to reduce its rates of tax by such an amount as will enable the province again to use the income tax and corporation tax fields and in particular to reduce the Dominion corporation tax in that province by 10 per cent.

If, however, an arbitral tribunal does not find that the Dominion has violated the agreement and the province still decides to terminate the agreement, the Dominion, in those circumstances, is not required to reduce its taxes in that province or at all.

Although fighting in Wyler ended during Thursday night, about 30 Germans were rounded up yesterday morning. They had been hiding in dugouts waiting for someone to take them prisoner. The Germans left many mines behind them, and a British soldier was reported killed when a booby-trapped piano blew up.

The Canadians were elated over this first conquest in Germany.

"We are conquering, not liberating now," remarked Pte. Norman Brudy of Regina, a company signaller.

Canadians have occupied a corner of Germany since the beginning of November but this new ground which they hold is the first German soil they captured themselves.

"Clean-Up" Battle Raging in Manila

anese lashed back suddenly at their pursuers with artillery, mortars and rifle fire.

At last reports, the 37th and vanguard of the American 11th Airborne division advancing from the south were rooting the Japanese from their street barricades and ruined houses in a hand-to-hand battle that outdid in sheer ferocity anything Gen. Douglas MacArthur's troops have experienced since they entered Manila a week ago.

(Tokyo, after announcing that all but a skeleton force has been evacuated from Manila, began boasting that the Americans had fallen into a trap in the capital. That version appeared purely a propaganda invention, however, as front dispatches said MacArthur was moving overwhelming forces into the city and that its complete liberation could not be long delayed.)

FIGHT NORTH OF CITY

More than 30 miles south of Manila, a heavy fighting broke out around Tagaytay, where a pocketed Japanese force launched two counter-attacks against units of the 11th Airborne Division. Both thrusts were beaten off with serious losses to the enemy.

Northwest of Manila, vanguards of the 38th Division pushed ten miles down the west coast, to Bataan from the capture of Olongapo naval base, too reach Moron.

Sansom Declares Drafted Troops Are Impressive

By WILLIAM BOSS

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS ON THE ADRIATIC, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Canada's inspector-general of reinforcements, Lt. Gen. E. W. Sansom, said here yesterday officers, responsible for training in the United Kingdom and in the field men called up under the National Resources Mobilization Act, "have been impressed by the physique, soldierly conduct and bearing of NRMA reinforcements."

The statement came from Gen. Sansom in answer to questions submitted by war correspondents earlier in the day. He was unable to say when the first NRMA men would reach the Mediterranean theatre.

No Extra Supply Farm Machinery

TORONTO, Feb. 10.—(CP)—No early improvement in the supply of farm machinery is foreseen and there can be little hope that its rationing can be lifted or supplies materially increased until 1946. H. H. Bloom, administrator of farm and construction machinery for the Prices Board, said Friday. Speaking to the final day's session of the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies, he said that reverses in the war in Europe late in 1944 had upset plans for increased supplies of machinery.

A Letter from Home!

A travelling committee from Air Force Headquarters headed by Air Vice-Marshal G. R. Howsam, MC, formerly air officer commanding No. 4 Training Command, Calgary, has been working at North West Air Command here, examining problems of staff and scale of issue of equipment. Main purpose of the committee is to scrutinize present staff positions and to revise them in the light of modified RCAF requirements since operation of the training plan has been largely suspended. Dear

This has been an eventful week on the various battle, and home fronts.

The advances made on the Western and Eastern Fronts in Europe, and on Luzon Island in the Philippines have made a deep impression here, and with the smashing of the Oder River line by the Red Army, it seems that the stage is all set for the investiture and capture of Berlin.

Here at home events have been of lesser significance, but have held an important place in the daily activities of the people. For instance, the 28th annual bonspiel of the Alberta Curling Association has been occupying much attention, and over the week-end is expected to be brought to a conclusion. Of course, bonspiels were held here earlier than 28 years ago, and curling has been popular for more than twice that period, but the present governing organization has been operating for that period.

Tonight the 19th Alberta Dragoons will hold a banquet and round-up, at which many old soldiers will get together and swap yarns of the good old days.

Here are some details on the week's highlights.

February 5

Over the week-end there were 19 persons arrested by city police on various charges. This was one of the busiest periods encountered by the police for some time. The charges were almost as varied as they were numerous.

A resident here for 30 years, Nelson Beckwith Moors, superintendent of the Alberta Government Telephones divisional plant, is dead. He was 68 years old. A daughter, Cpl. Rosetta Moors, is serving with the CWAC.

During 1944 there were 9,944 applications for housing accommodation made to the Edmonton Accommodation Bureau, according to J. A. Christiansen. Of the total 5,297 were placed.

Slipping on the street at the intersection of 701 street and 102 avenue, and striking the side of his head, Stanley Steffure, 10148 104 street, was rushed to the Royal Alexandra hospital in a serious condition. He had just started across the street when the accident occurred, police stated.

An "excellent response" met the efforts of the provincial post-war reconstruction committee, farm, business and household survey which ended last night, according to Reg. T. Rose, chairman of the investigating group. In all 3,500 reports have been received by investigators, and 6,000 more are expected within a short time.

Canadians had too much power for South Side and piled up a 3-2 count before a crowd of 1,300 in a Junior Hockey League contest at the Arena. It was the ninth win in 10 starts for the Canadians, with the other ending in a 7-7 tie.

Dr. A. E. Rosborough, principal of University High school, has been elected president of the University of Alberta Alumni Association.

A complimentary dinner was given at the Corona hotel to Alvin H. Snyder, 11029 95 street, on the occasion of his retirement from active service as a Canadian National Railways engineer. More than 100 guests attended, including friends from Edmonton and Jasper.

In The Big Push

Canadian troops are again in action on the western front, and the anxiety of folks at home for relatives in the fighting line is of course keyed to the highest pitch.

But there are some things that are reassuring to remember at this point. One is that Field Marshal Montgomery wins campaigns not by sacrificing men but by conserving them. He did this in Africa, in Sicily, and in Italy. Battle casualties are inevitable, but under Montgomery they will be kept to the minimum that skill and experience can make possible.

The offensive on Thursday opened with an artillery barrage of the traditional Montgomery intensity, and as the infantry went in "the artillery moved up"—so runs a despatch from the front. And ahead of the infantry went a fleet of 2,700 bombers and fighters, to provide a "ceiling" and strafe enemy positions. The advance was paced by flame-throwing tanks and land cruisers of the Churchill type.

Which means that our men have the advantage of the finest equipment of all kinds that skill and money can provide,
and plenty of it.

And let nobody lose any sleep over the wild things that were said in North Grey.
Our units did not go into battle with thin ranks, nor without reserves and replacements in the numbers calculated to be necessary. No Canadian government would put men in such a position; certainly not the man who shaped the "spearhead" which has now been launched at the vitals of the enemy.

With the best of leadership and the best of equipment, the Canadian divisions have joined the "big push" in circumstances which promise success for their undertaking and the utmost possible safety for the men involved.

"Health Is Fundamental"

Speaking in connection with National Health Week, Dr. R. M. Bow, deputy minister of public health in this province, said this:

"Health is fundamental and we cannot accomplish anything in any sphere unless we have a sound basis of individual and community health. Health is not merely freedom from disease. It is a complete all-round fully developed program for the individual and the state."

Health, assuredly, is fundamental. And the principles of the program enunciated by the deputy minister are equally fundamental.

This broad conception of health appears to be implemented in a concrete and satisfactory way by many of the health measures now in effect in Alberta.

This was the first province, for instance, to institute the municipal hospital plan, which has developed from one such hospital in 1919 to 40 in 1945.

Alberta pioneered in the establishment of public health nurses, who now number 65.

Alberta's plan of venereal disease control has functioned so well that this province has the lowest incidence of syphilis in Canada.

Alberta also was first in providing free cancer clinics, diagnosis and free surgical and hospital service.

All this indicates an exceedingly commendable view of the importance of health and adds up to one of the cardinal advantages of living in Alberta.

Jasper Park Improvements

The brief prepared by the Jasper Park Development Committee appears to involve heavy expenditures to secure the improvements recommended. But there are few ways in which public money could be apent to better advantage.

The brief has been put together with great care, and it is clear that no improvement has been urged that careful study has not shown to be of absolute necessity.

Convenience and safety have been taken into full consideration in the brief and the recommendations depict the development of a national park that will not only provide a healthful playground for Alberta people, but also a tourist attraction of the first magnitude.

The full list of recommendations has already appeared in the news columns. It is not necessary to reproduce them here.
But a close consideration of them will show that not one can be reasonably omitted.

It is not one day too early to begin to think of post-war tourist plans. As soon as the war is over and gasoline and tires become available, the flow will undoubtedly commence. And tourist interest in Alberta will be appreciably increased by the fact that so many American servicemen have been quartered in this province during the past two years.

The Jasper Park Development Committee has done an excellent job and it is up to the people and institutions of Edmonton to see that their work bears some material result.

Von Papen to the Rescue?

Drowning men grasp at straws. There is no reason to doubt that Herr Hitler is or has been toying with the idea that he might hoodwink the Allies into an escape armistice if he retired into the background as president of the Reich, and set up a "less repulsive" cabinet than his murder group to broach the question of terms. He never did think the Allied leaders had much sense.

But if there is anything in the report that Franz von Papen is the Hitler choice as head of such a fishing party, the Fuehrer could hardly pick a worse one—not that it would make any difference who he picked. Franz is the outstanding survivor of the First Great War whose picture adorns the rogues' gallery of unhanged scoundrels.

Von Papen is the man who, while enjoying official immunity as Berlin's representative at Washington, hired men to blow up plants in the United States and kill their employees, and conspired with kindred spirits to wreck the Welland canal.
As the oldest crook in the Hitler entourage he deserves precedence, but as a seeker of a soft peace his pleadings couldn't get attention for the odor of his record.

Though, for the matter of that, Hitler would do as well for the job as any Franz nominee. Unconditional surrender is the only basis on which the Fuehrer and his criminal crew can get a hearing. Whether Adolf stays in the limelight or shoves some "less repulsive" stooge to the front of the stage doesn't matter.

Tokyo announces that a Quisling government has been set up in Burma. Where it is located and of whom it is composed are details not supplied. As they have to get out of the country, the Japs perhaps hope by this means to induce Burmese collaborators to organize forces and cover their retreat. They seem to need that kind of assistance, and are not likely to have any further interest in Burma's affairs.

Superfortresses based in India have opened a double-header offensive in Siam and Indo-China. General De Gaulle will be interested in this, perhaps to the point of supplying troops to clear the Japs out of Indo-China when the time comes for ground operations. French forces on the upper Rhine are giving a good account of themselves, and another huge army is being recruited and trained behind the lines. Indo-China is another place where France could signalize its restoration to independence and sovereignty by chasing enemy forces out of its territory.

Russians Have Sensible Plan

Lauds Soviet Attitude Towards the Defeated Germans

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

I would like for purpose of clarity, to recapitulate certain aspects of the German question which is certainly concerning the Big Three, wherever they may be.
Two years ago—on the day after the announcement at Casablanca of the unconditional surrender formula this column argued as follows: The Nazis will never surrender, for: surrender is suicide.
No German group can or will undertake to rise against the regime without previous assurances that such a hazardous enterprise will favorably alter the German position.

Therefore, unconditional surrender applied to Germany under any and all conditions closes certain possibilities and, in lieu of them, will eventually put upon us the responsibility for governing Germany. In that case, it is essential that there be agreement between Britain, the USSR and the United States on principles and personalities for the reconstruction of Europe and Germany. For unless there are common principles, programs and people to fill the vacuum created by collapse we shall have ungovernable chaos, and all but certain dissension between Allies.

Since then we have regularly—and perhaps annoyingly—asked of every single policy which has been advocated: What is the reason for it? What interests will it serve?
What new problems is it likely to create? Are we prepared to meet those problems? And, above all, are all three Allies agreed?

For obviously it is impossible to take over the military, political and economic administration of a large nation, following a war of monstrous destruction, without having principles, a program, a long-range objective, and Germans organized to help carry it out.

I have recommended certain definite measures.

It is a year since I called attention to the lack of any far-sighted policy in dealing with German prisoners of war. I pointed out that the conventional procedures for applying self-government in prison camps, led inevitably, to the dominations of the prisoners by the most unified and ruthless group, which was Nazi. I recommended a systematic division of prisoners into Nazi, non-political, and anti-Nazi, beginning with the isolation, not of the anti-Nazi but of the Nazi leaders. I advised that the re-education of Germans begin right here in the United States, among prisoners of war, who sooner or later would be returned to Germany.

I was informed by the then Provost Marshal that such re-education was against the Geneva Convention.
I replied—with the facts—that there was not a word in the Geneva Convention to prevent it.

I recommended organizing German anti-Nazi refugees of political intelligence and experience to aid in such prisoner re-education as it obviously could not be undertaken by the military alone, and to assist in preparing the way for an anti-Nazi German administration and police, and to co-operate in laying foundations for that form of future German society which might seem possible and desirable.

These suggestions were made by a powerless individual. They were espoused by some readers of this column.

But they were also vehemently attacked, and by organized groups, on the ground that I assumed there were "good" and "bad" Germans, or that any Germans could be trusted. To that one could only remark dryly that if there aren't any, we shall have to invent them.

But I now want to ask a question:

Handsome Crystal Is Popular

Hints on How to Keep Flat Silver Bright and Shiny

By MARY ALICE QUAYNE

Beauty is not something merely to be framed and hung on the walls of your home or confined to the lonely precincts of the art galleries.
It should be a quality of harmony, balance, simplicity, and fitness to purpose that characterizes everything you do and use. Form should equal function and everyday objects of utilitarian value can be beautiful.

In the Renaissance, when princes were the patrons of artists, this situation prevailed. Happily, although industry and commerce and the buying public have supplanted the princely patrons, the present century has seen a resurgence of this recognition of the importance of good design in articles of everyday use.

Tremendous strides have been taken, for instance, in the field of glass or crystal, a material which forms so many of the things which are used around the average home.
The early 1900's saw a renaissance in the art of glassmaking and never has crystal been more perfect or more beautiful, both in the quality of glass and in the design of objects fashioned.

New and cautious processes of melting and melting have resulted in one heavy type of colorless crystal of great brilliance which is virtually lacking in all imperfections. The adherence to the "off-hand" method of glassmaking, the quality of the materials used, and the sound design apparent in all pieces help to What do those critics think of what the Soviet Union has done?

Miss Ella Winter, upon her return from Moscow, has written a series of articles in the New York Post, on the status of the free German committee and the Union of German officers.

She informs us that the latter contains 50 German generals and thousands of other officers and German soldiers. Among them are Prussian aristocrats. German anti-Nazi exiles in the Soviet Union have been continually conferring with them. A special paper dealing with the German future has been published by them and for them.
Miss Winter says, "nobody here (in Moscow) theorizes as to whether all Germans are paranoiacs, or whether their aggressiveness goes back to Wotan."

"German prisoners are working—some are skilled engineers—in factories, teaching young Russians . . .
the duped stupefied German private is not the man who made the war . . ." She quotes a Russian as saying.

"There have been many discussions (by German officers) with Red Army staff officers in a secret headquarters outside Moscow.
"Nazis have honestly switched sides and been accepted."

Politicians

Editor, Bulletin: I have been under the impression that we had highly paid and trained military experts over in Europe, directing and guiding Canada's war effort to the best of their ability, and kept in daily touch with the Canadian defence department as to requirements, and who are certainly more reliable than a professional politician.

I venture to say that none of the politicians that went over ever heard a shot fired while visiting (what they call) the battle front, and I doubt very much if they would know a battle front from a rear.

Now if Dr. Shields and Tim Buck went over the circus would be complete.
Politicians that go overseas for political expediency, and come back home and make a political football of the war and of the lives of others, should be arrested and interned for the duration, or given a parachute on their way over, that won't open, and told to jump.

Housing Act

Editor, Bulletin: Because public needs and consequent public demands compelled the federal government to recognize its responsibility towards assisting housing the people of our nation, the National Housing Act became operative about a week ago.

But despite public needs and public demand, despite the national scope of the act, despite the fact we of Alberta form a part of this nation, despite democracy and the fact that thousands of our sons are fighting to keep democracy alive and give a real meaning, we in Alberta where houses are so badly needed and the people pay part of the cost in taxes, cannot borrow a dime of the funds made available for homes.

Frankly, I am at a loss where to pin the blame; some say it is the provincial government; some say the loan companies; others blame
the federal government.

For the lack of any real explanation I say that there is evidence that between them, they are playing duck and drakes with the peo-

That the committee encompasses various viewpoints is proved by the fact that a new sub-committee of Catholics has been formed under

I have yet to see a line in our press, or a statement from the groups who have attacked my stand, criticizing the Soviet Union for doing some of the things I have

If my observations and recommendations make me an appeaser

Soviets?

I think the Soviets are preparing their political plans with extreme intelligence. It is a crime to wish that our own were equal to it? Must the political initiative only and ex-

And is it better to assume that we could find and cultivate Ger-in power, as reports say we have done in the Aachen area?

Mental Age

Editor, Bulletin: Press dispatches from Great Britain quote an American army psychiatrist that the mental age of the average U.S.A. soldier is 14 for this war and 12 for Great War I, which myth is effectively exposed by Fortune Magazine, December, 1942. The magazine states such slanderous assertions, however, have vast anti-social consequences. The American psy-chiatrist's allegations automatically embarrass Canadians and soldiers of all English-speaking races.

Slander of this character will be better understood when it is realized that pseudo-psychiatry capitalizes at the expense of the mental, moral and nervous-disabled casualties of the war, attributing the condition of such men to alleged defective pre-enlistment traits, therefore not pensionable. Propagand-izing the alleged mental age of the soldier as but 14 is in line with pseudo-psychiatry's assertions as to disabilities arising from alleged mental deficiency rather than the stress and strain of war service.

Governments whose activities are recognized as Fascist in character have given first place to the manipulations of pseudo-psychiatry rather than the findings of the legitimate medical profession of Canada, reflecting the opinions of world medical science, and the present government of Canada is notorious in this respect, as the records of departmental files amply testify.

Bible Reading in Schools

Extracts from Ontario Education Department instructions to teachers in the public schools.

The Course of Study in Religious Education, herein tentatively proposed, consists of two phases: first,
the religious exercises, and second,
systematic study of the scriptures,
with related activities.

The religious exercises are devotional in character and will consist largely of Scripture readings, prayer and music. These exercises will be held daily at the opening of school and should be regarded not merely as an opening ceremony, but as a preparation for the day's work, the influence of which will be felt throughout all the activities of the school.

For systematic study of the Scriptures and associated activities, two periods per week, each one-half hour in length, are provided. The Scriptural interpretations are to be non-sectarian, and will not follow
the tenets or doctrines of any particular creed. They will be confined to those expressions of the Christian faith upon which all Christian denominations are in substantial agreement.

Examinations will not be required, but the teacher will be expected to evaluate the efficiency of his teaching as he does in the case of social studies or natural science.

(a) Scripture Reading: The Scripture passages chosen for the opening exercises should be arresting and complete in themselves.
If not immediately intelligible, they may be prefaced by a brief explanation. From eight to 12 verses is a reasonable length, though some stories and parables must run to more. The Scripture reading should normally be taken from one or other of the two great English versions, since it is in the highest degree desirable to familiarize the children with the beauty of diction and rhythm of these priceless literary masterpieces. The passages of Scripture selected for the religious exercises will be chosen

Free Enterprise

Editor, Bulletin: Mr. E. D. Good-

nent Mortgage Corp., in your paper says: "Nothing is surer than that socialism in the long run spells

Well, Mr. Gooderham should know all about tyranny, being head of a mortgage company.

Again from his statement: "Free men breathe more easily and achieve more effectively in an atmosphere of untrammelled democracy."

The only things farmers and laborers achieve under such free enterprises is longer hours of work for less remuneration.

If Mr. Gooderham and his free enterprises will get off the backs, take their hands out of the pockets and keep their poison out of the mouths of the common people in this country, then and not till then can we solve our problems in the Canadian way.

But if they insist on continuing to extract more from their fair and just share there still remains another way which the free enterprisers will not enjoy too much I fear.
In fact they now have a commission running around Canada at the people's expense to find a way of stopping the co-operative movements of the common people.

Oh, yes, Mr. Gooderham has high tion after the war, but how does he feel toward co-operation amongst Canadians for the benefit of themselves?

Major and Minor Notes

By John Oliver

NEXT Friday night, the attention of music lovers will be focused on the Empire theatre, where Bidu Sayao, front-rank soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Association will be heard in the penultimate concert of the current season's Celebrity Series sponsored by the Women's Musical Club. It will be her second appearance here—the first having been in the season 1940-1941. Impressed by her first trip through Western Canada, Miss Sayao this time is bringing her mother along to see the country. Miss Sayao's concert was one of the finest in the history of the Celebrity Series, and in addition to the outstanding quality of her work, she won her way into the hearts of Edmontonians, with her unassuming, charming manner and captivating personal appeal. She will be greeted by a capacity audience when she makes her entrance. Since her previous appearance she has been heard several times on broadcast concerts and performances at the Met. Only last Saturday she sang Mimi in Puccini's "La Bohème" in the broadcast performance, in which the Rodolfo was Jan Peerce.

JOHN OLIVER

Her program includes classical, modern and operatic works. At the piano will be Milne Charnley, a first rate accompanist. The program is as follows: She Never Told Her Love, and Sympathy, Haydn; Violetta, Scarlatti; aria Deh Vieni non Tardar from "The Marriage of Figaro," Mozart; Cantiga, Netta; Lament, Sandoval; El des Pechado, Berger; El Mercado de las Esclaves, arranged Sandoval; aria, Ah, Fors e Lui, from the opera "La Traviata," Verdi; Air de l'Enfant from "L'Enfant et les Sortilèges," Ravel; L'Oiseau Bleu, Dalcroze; Le Nelumbo, Monet; Chanson Triste, Duparc; Stressa, Waltz; Down in the Glen, Ellen Remick Warren; Turn Ye to Me, arranged Hopekirk, Rapunzel, Sacco.

Already the Edmonton Philharmonic Society, under the direction of Abe Frakin has commenced rehearsals for its third and final concert of the regular season's series, to be given at the Empire theatre on Sunday March 18. The program is one calculated to please the great majority as it comprises well known lighter classics. The orchestral works are overture to The Gypsy Baron, Strauss; Hungarian Dances Nos. 5 and 6, Brahms; the Gluck-Brahms Gavotte; Minuet from Berenice, Handel; Moment Musical, Schubert; tone poem Finlandia, Sibelius. Hazel Taylor will be the piano soloist, playing Grieg's Concerto in A Minor.

Miss Taylor will have an exceptionally fine opportunity to display her ability—an opportunity that comes all too seldom. To play a concerto with orchestra is a high water mark in a soloist's artistic career. The Grieg opus is one of the most beautiful of all, and ever since the day it was first performed, with the composer himself at the piano, it has been a prime favorite of the world over. Its inclusion on the next program will be a matter of interest.

It was gratifying to note that the orchestra has made considerable progress in the interval since the December concert. There is still room for improvement, a fact of which Mr. Frakin is aware and is making every effort to achieve. For a new organization the orchestra has received splendid support. Although the audience was large, there were some seats vacant, and it is to be hoped that all will be filled next time. Let it be remembered that the orchestra itself holds the secret of attracting capacity houses. If it can make the programs, and performance thereof sufficiently attractive, the public will want to go, and will go, and all the seats will be filled. Thus it constitutes a challenge to the players individually and collectively to improve the standard of performance to such an extent that music lovers feel attendance is essential for their own benefit as well as for the cultural advancement of the city.

Mrs. James B. Carmichael, general musical director of the Edmonton Civic Opera Society is intensifying rehearsals for "Rose Marie" scheduled for presentation at the Empire theatre April 11-14 inclusive. The cast, headed by Shirley Neher in the title role; David Oldham as Jim Kenyon; Welford Johnston as Sergeant Malone; Laurier Picard as Hard-Boiled Herman and others yet to be nominated, is hard at work and early reports are that the show will be fully up to previous standards.

A full and heavy agenda awaits the San Carlo Opera Company when it plays at the Empire theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 1, 2 and 3. For more than 25 years this organization, through its sporadic visits, has been a favorite here. Many of the singers who appeared in past years have gone on to the Metropolitan and other major companies. Glancing over the personnel this writer finds a large percentage of new singers even since the last visit. Only one name is recognized as being among those who were present when the company first came to the old Empire theatre, namely Mario Valle.

Mr. Valle used to be a dashing Escanillo in Carmen, and a tragic lover in Rigoletto. Now his name appears only as stage director—an important post at that. Newer old-timers are the excellent baritone Mostyn Thomas, and resounding bass and admirable Mephistopheles, Harold Kravitt. There are other names, familiar to opera devotees, even though they have not appeared here such as Sydney Rayner, a high-ranking tenor and Carol Morelli, excellent baritone. A Montreal girl who is rapidly forging ahead is Mary Henderson, who will play Micaela in "Carmen." Violetta in "La Traviata" and Marguerite in "Faust"—three heavy assignments.

Other leading singers, such as Margaret Mayer, Tandy MacKenzie, Grace Panvini, Willis Stewart, Marie Powers are new. There will be a new conductor in the pit to carry on the tradition established by Gaetano Merola, the original conductor of the San Francisco opera and Carlo Peroni, popular leader of the last several visits, who died about a year ago. The new director is Nicholas Rescigno, who, according to accounts received, is a capable musician.

The roster reveals another unmistakable trend. There is an increasing number of Anglo-Saxon names. Heretofore an English name was the exception rather than the rule. Now there are many. This is undoubtedly caused by two major factors. One is the war, which precludes the migration of artists, and the other is that more and more fine singers are being turned out by the studios and conservatories on this side of the Atlantic, with the result that impresarios are giving them increased opportunities. Incidentally five operas will be played in three days, namely "Carmen," "La Traviata," "Rigoletto," "Faust," and "Il Trovatore." While crowds at the three road shows in the last couple of weeks have not been large, reports from Tom Tasker, manager of the Empire, are that mail orders for the San Carloans are arriving thick and fast.

In the absence of G. A. Kevan, president of the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Music Teachers Association, Mrs. F. Barber Smith, vice-president, presided at the monthly meeting held Thursday at the Public Library. Mrs. T. Winslow Hamilton, delegate for the branch to the provincial convention of music teachers' associations held last week at Calgary, reported on proceedings. V. A. Beringer, in charge of the young artists concert on Monday, March 12, announced completion of arrangements. The concert, under the sponsorship of the Canadian Federation of Music Teachers' Associations, will include Mary Hughes, Calgary pianist; Shirley Neher, soprano; Dina Heckleman, violinist; Vera Shean, violinist and Beulah Doney, pianist, all of Edmonton. It was announced

McCoy Health Service

The development of boils will be encouraged by wrong habits of eating and particularly by the use of rich, heavy food, which creates the acidosis soil in which the staphylococcus can grow. Elevation is also an important predisposing cause. Constant irritation of the skin through continued rubbing sometimes plays a part in favoring the occurrence of a boil. For example, when the neck is rubbed with a stiff shirt collar, the neck may become the site of a boil. Changes in blood chemistry may induce a crop of boils; for example, the changes in blood chemistry seen in diabetes often make the patient susceptible to boils.

A boil is an acute inflammation of the skin occurring within a limited area. It usually first appears as a small pimple which within a few hours is surrounded by a dark red swelling. At this stage, the painful sensation reaches its height, later becoming a marked tenderness rather than actual pain. The local swelling increases and within several days will come to a head or arrive at a point, being in the shape of a cone. At this stage, the pressure underneath will cause a discharge of pus, together with the core.

One of the most important rules to observe when a boil is present is to leave it alone. Picking at it, squeezing it or opening it before it has come to a point will only make matters worse. Most boils should not be opened before 36 or 48 hours have passed. Mistaken meddling in the early stage will do more harm than good. If it is desired to hurry matters along, the application of a warm, moist, continuous flaxseed poultice may make the boil come to a head a little more quickly than it would otherwise.

Once a boil has formed, keeping the skin clean should become a first consideration. Strict cleanliness of the skin surface will help to prevent the spread of the infection. Certainly the patient should take great care to keep the surrounding surface as clean as possible.

Probably most people open boils at home; however, it is a good plan to have a large boil lanced by a doctor. The boil is lanced for the purpose of allowing the escape of dead tissue, and to hasten removing the core. Lancing also relieves the tension.

When you are watching the development of a boil, you are watching a struggle between the invading organism and the defensive powers of the body. The body will fight to erect a barrier which stops the spread of the infection, and when the defensive powers are good, the resulting inflammation will be held down to the size of a pimple; when the relative powers are low, then a large boil will result.

All questions regarding health and diet will be answered. Large stamped, self-addressed envelope must be enclosed. Write on one side of paper only. Letters must not exceed 150 words. Address McCoy Health Service, The McCoy Building, 1151 West 6th Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Peace Forces are Believed At Work Inside Germany

By C. R. BLACKBURN
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Official Washington yesterday awaited eagerly further revelations from the "Big Three" conference now believed to be approaching its conclusion in the Black sea area.

While no official comment was forthcoming here, there was a feeling that peace forces are at work inside Germany, preparing to meet an ultimatum expected momentarily from the Churchill-Roosevelt-Stalin meeting.

Foreign envoys with means of obtaining information appear convinced that an increasing number of Germans in high places are hoping for an offer that will bring an Armistice less costly than a final fight that would only prolong the lives of the Nazi high command.

It is generally known that the Big Three and their Allies have already prepared the basic terms on which an Armistice may be negotiated but the actual negotiations will be up to the supreme commanders in the field.

Some diplomats here are worried over the fact that neither Gen. de Gaulle nor a representative were invited to the meeting, but there is still the possibility that President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill might meet him before they end their conversations, and seek to break down the coolness evidenced by the latter in his public statements that France would not be bound by Big Three commitments to which he was not a party.

Archbishop of Canterbury Urges Co-Operation of World's Powers

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Geoffrey Francis Fisher, said there must be "trustful co-operation between Great Britain, the United States, and Russia."

Asserting the need for such co-operation is "critical," he added: "No one can say that there are no grounds for anxiety about the future of the world, but leaders and people must be possessed with the spirit to secure it, and that spirit is really the spirit of the Christian religion."

Dr. Fisher gave his views in an exclusive interview. He advocated an international organization which gives "proper place" to small nations and which "in due time must admit enemy countries."

MUST BE EDUCATED

He said, however, participation of enemy countries in the international structure must be preceded by a "long period of education of the enemy countries in principles that are part of our Christian heritage but which they have foregone for many years past."

While declining to express an opinion upon particular aspects of the Dumbarton Oaks security proposals, the Archbishop commented that "quite clearly if wars are to be avoided, there must be a gain in international organization rooted in principles of right and justice."

"We must proceed from where we are, that is, from a world in which four great powers carry chief responsibility and power," he said.

WILL TAKE TIME

"The problem must be solved as we go along, step by step. We cannot establish an organization for all time at once. The ultimate purpose of the forces of peace and justice will be so established in an international organization that enemy countries will be admitted in due time."

Dr. Fisher disclosed that the Church of England is planning to send representatives to continental churches for mutual consultation and spiritual fellowship, and that plans are under way for giving these churches material aid in reconstructing themselves. The Anglican Church, he said, will co-operate with the World Council of Churches in reconstruction for European churches.

A report coming before the Church Assembly next week, Dr. Fisher revealed, recommends that the Church of England raise a quarter of a million pounds in seven years towards a desired total of one million pounds for European church reconstruction.

UNITY TO BE SLOW

Expressing optimism over prospects for church union, the Archbishop warned that unity will be a slow process.

"The problem of church reunion remains one of the most important and one of the most difficult confronting the churches," he explained. "The need for it grows here in England. Co-operation between the churches has developed tremendously and the kind of atmosphere is growing up between them which makes quiet and careful consideration of the problem of reunion more hopeful than it has ever been. However, one must not expect rapid accomplishment of a task which is fraught with difficulties arising from deeply held principles."

Dr. Fisher said he did not think that a Lambeth conference of the church can be held before 1947 and it may be later than that. The last Lambeth meeting was held in 1930, and it has been agreed on all sides, the Archbishop stated, that another must be held at the earliest possible date after the war.

BRITISH EDUCATION ACT

He declared the Church of England regards Britain's new education act as "an honest attempt both to meet the needs of the church itself and to secure for all the children of the nation a sound introduction to Christian faith and character. He stressed that the success of the education plan depends upon the teachers and that the most important part of the church's task is in its training colleges for teachers."

The Archbishop, discussing missionary problems, asserted it is "remarkable" that in the last two years "there has been a very great increase in missionary contributions from the home church."

"Missionary work, like that of church work at home is immensely affected by the shortage of manpower owing to the absence of a vast number of chaplains in the forces," he said. "The question of demobilization for them will be difficult, for we must have in mind the needs of both the home church and the church overseas."

Dr. Fisher concluded by expressing optimism as to the prospects of the Christian religion and the Christian church.

"I think the opportunities are greater, more challenging and more hopeful than for many years. At least everybody knows now that Christianity is not a conventional thing but stands for realities. The evidence of the churches in the occupied countries and in Germany itself proves that."

TODAY'S MESSAGE

By REV. DAVID D. ALLEN

The Grip of Greed

ONE of the characteristics of this day is insatiable greed. This worst of all wars has greed as one of its causes. The lust for power and the desire to accumulate land and enslave the populace seem to be international policy. In the world, greed is rampant and the father of innumerable ills. In our own country, the overwhelming majority of the populace is held in the grip of greed.

The wave of greediness that is sweeping our country since the war began is alarming. No one is satisfied with wages, job, home, car, or town. Greediness comes natural to the fallen sons of Adam. It should be different, however, with those of us who are born again. God's Word tells us, "Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well" (Prov. 5:15). The emphasis is on the word "own".

The Bible gives every individual the right to own things. Free enterprise and the right to own private property is not only democratic, it is biblical. You have a right to your own well, to use it and enjoy it, but at the same time you must leave mine alone. I have a right to my own well also, and I must leave yours alone.

Isn't it strange that the grass seems greener in the other fellow's yard? His job seems better, his wages appear larger, and his path seems easier. The first thing we know we are coveting that which is his, whether it is his car, house, wife, or lawnmower. We covet for awhile, and then our covetousness grows into greediness. When we become greedy enough, we stoop to unbelievable depths to satisfy that greed.

There are professing Christians today who are working themselves into poor health and a backslidden condition, not because they are patriotic, but because they are greedy for gain. Many a saint of God is neglecting his Bible, prayer life, and church services to "make hay while the sun shines."

Prosperity is never a healthy time for the church; prosperity is seldom conducive to spirituality. We Christians must be on guard lest this insidious greediness creep into our lives and lead us captive before we realize it. Greed, like any other besetting sin, can be vanquished only as we bring it into the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ and ask Him to give us victory over it. Only His power can free us from the grip of greed.

Scona Baptist Minister Ending Pastorate Here

Minister of Strathcona Baptist Church for the last nine years, the Rev. S. M. Hirtle has resigned, and will leave his post toward the end of March. It was announced this week after meeting of the church board. The resignation was accepted with regret and a committee has been appointed to consider the obtaining of a successor.

Born in Mahone Bay, N.S., Mr. Hirtle is a graduate of Acadia University at Wolfville, N.S. He held a pastorate in Canada, N.S., for two years after leaving college and then proceeded to the Newton Theological Institute at Newton Centre in Greater Boston, Mass. Prior to coming to Edmonton, he was minister at the Federated Church, Baptist and Congregational, at Hudson, Mass.

"My family and I are leaving Edmonton with very real regret," Mr. Hirtle said Saturday. "We have had nine very happy years here and like the city very much. The minister and his family, after leaving here, will establish a home on Vancouver Island. He does not expect to take an active part in church life for some time."

Rev. Gray Rivers At Beverly United

As a part of the Boy's Work Board program of All People's Mission, the Rev. Gray Rivers, provincial secretary of the Boy's Work Board, will speak at the service at Beverly United Church Sunday morning, Feb. 11 at 11 a.m.

A particular welcome is extended to all Beverlyites to be present, and support by their presence the fine work being done in the boys' club at Beverly United Church. The club is open to all boys, regardless of color or creed, the only stipulation being that they attend some church or Sunday school.

Student Ministers To Be Given Help

Plans for resumption of scholarships for continental theological students are progressing rapidly in England and Scotland, according to the Rev. Dr. J. Hutchison Cockburn, former moderator of the Church of Scotland who was recently named British secretary of the Department of Reconstruction and Inter-Church Aid of the World Council of Churches.

Dr. Cockburn said that a committee from the Scottish divinity schools had been in conference with English divinity school representatives to bring ministerial candidates from the Continent to Great Britain for study on scholarships.

"Our experience with continental pastors who have enjoyed scholarships in Britain," he said, "have proved that human ties thus established were of the highest value, both in maintaining church relationships abroad, and in securing the kind of international friendship that survives the stress of war."

Filling a Long-Felt Want in Churches The MINSHALL Organ

Adequate Church Music A Few MINSHALL Organ Installations in Northern Alberta...

ONE thing people desire to hear in church is a reverent, appropriate musical service. The Minshall Organ with its wide range of tone, furnishes the proper background, whether in the volume required for congregational singing, the quiet, expressive passages for solos and offertories, or the varied shading demanded by choir work.

Many congregations are installing Minshall Organs as a tribute to the war effort. The price, less than $1,000, places a Minshall Organ within reach of churches with limited budgets. May we send you a booklet?

City Minister Gideon Speaker CGIT-Tuxis Groups Will Meet in City

The minister of the First Presbyterian church addressed the Gideons at their regular banquet supper Thursday evening. He spoke of the "Essential Doctrines of the Christian Faith." He contended that man who has rejected these teachings has found that it got him into trouble.

The speaker asserted that the essential doctrines of the Christian faith were necessary to a successful working out, the relations between individuals and nations. He said the basic trouble in this world is that man is guilty. Guilty because he was not in the divine will of God. For man's chief aim should be to glorify God. He has sinned in not doing so, and it has led this world into much trouble. Man must be reconciled to his God, and find justification through the death of Christ in order to have the proper relationship to his fellow-men.

M. H. Montgomery was received as a member of the Gideons and was presented a membership button.

The first ironclad war vessel was built by Admiral Yi Sun Sin of Korea in 1594.

Highlighting the conference program are discussion groups led by the Rev. Dr. E. J. Thompson, the Rev. S. D. Trites, the Rev. E. H. Birdsall and Dean A. M. Trendell. On Sunday a panel discussion will be held on the topic "The Obligation of the church to youth." Chairman will be Ralph Young, and members of the panel, W. Pettigrew, H. Sprague, Mrs. D. Thornton, Marjorie McTaggart and Lorne Calhoun.

Speaker at the Sunday evening church service will be the Rev. Gray Rivers. Vesper services will conclude each day's conference sessions. Last item on the agenda Sunday is a young people's meeting.

vacancies caused by the large number of ministers who have entered the chaplaincy service. At present there are more than 200 chaplains of this church body in the armed forces of Canada and the United States.

Since mission work in the post-war era will offer a distinct challenge to the church the 5,000 congregations of the Missouri Synod have decided to raise a minimum of $5,000,000 for this purpose. Plan are well advanced in the various congregations of western Canada to take part in this effort.

GRATIFYING PHASE
Another gratifying phase of church work is this that quite a number of congregations and preaching stations are starting funds with which to build churches and parsonages in the post-war era. The committee on radio and publicity reported that the Lutheran Hour is expanding its work. At present more than 550 stations in 26 different countries are broadcasting the Lutheran Hour. Need For Chaplains Stated To Be Acute

An acute need for chaplains on the battle fronts was reported by the Rt. Rev. Edward Hagan, moderator of the Church of Scotland, in an interview at his home in Edinburgh following his return from a visit to Scottish chaplains on the northern sector of the western front.

Dr. Hagan said there was an "alarming" falling off in the recruitment of new chaplains, and that it was impossible to obtain replacements in many instances for clergymen ordered home to recuperate.

Chaplains now in service abroad, he added, were seriously concerned about preparation by the church at home for receiving returning troops. They were advised by Dr. Hagan to draw up a memorandum summarizing their experiences and outlining their practical suggestions, to guide the churches' post-war program.

Dr. Hagan met the pastor of Temple du Musee in Brussels, Belgium, and heard his story of four years of strain and humiliation under the German occupation, during which time, he was told, not a single Evangelical pastor or church member had "capitulated" to the enemy.

During his brief stay in Holland, the moderator preached to Allied troops in three Dutch Reformed churches.

The annual meeting of the Alberta District of the Lutheran Church Conference held in the Augustana Lutheran Church Feb. 2 to 4 was well attended, and good progress was noted in the congregations of the district during the last year.

The three-day convention closed Sunday evening with a missionary program sponsored by the District W. M. Society at which time the Rev. A. A. Nelson of Saskatoon delivered an address on the topic "God's Call for Volunteers." A generous offering was lifted for the home for the aged at Wetaskiwin and the Canadian Lutheran Bible Institute at Camrose.

A committee consisting of one board member from each congregation in the district was elected to study ways and means for a more effective missionary program during the ensuing year. The district chairman will serve as chairman of said committee.

The following officers were elected for 1945: president, the Rev. Otto Eklund, Meeting Creek; vice-president, the Rev. C. A. Bernhardtson, Camrose; secretary and statistician, the Rev. John L. Benson, Calgary; treasurer, the Rev. J. A. Vikman, Edmonton.

Following the service the YPU will hold a fireside hour featuring a special program and refreshments.

Widespread Clergy Loss Causes Problem In Liberated Countries

Widespread loss of clergy, rather than destruction of buildings, is the immediate problem confronting Protestants in liberated European countries, according to the Department of Reconstruction and Inter-Church Aid of the World Council of Churches. Other pressing needs arise from lack of religious literature and disruption of church life, a Department report states.

The report disclosed that many pastors who remained at their posts in France have been weakened by overwork and privations and are in need of prolonged treatment and rest. The material condition of their families was described as "very precarious."

To train new men, theological faculties and training centres for lay workers must be re-opened in some cases, the report said, while war prisoners and repatriated workers who have felt a call to the ministry during their exile must be offered a chance to prepare themselves under proper conditions. In addition, young pastors from abroad must be sent to relieve parishes which need them to fill empty pulpits.

BADLY NEEDED
Financial assistance is badly needed in Holland, where local church funds are totally inadequate, to restore parishes almost completely disrupted by deportations and floods. Forced exile and imprisonment of pastors have resulted in closing theological faculties, and placing an increased burden on clergymen still in office.

In Belgium, the department's report revealed, only 28 clergymen are available at present for more than 40 parishes.

The report stressed the "complete lack" of religious books in the three countries. The list of books available in Switzerland has already been exhausted, and facilities are not yet available in the liberated areas to print new material or to reprint standard theological works. Another urgent problem is the revival of the religious press.

"In France," the report stated, "the moment has come to undertake the publication of a good Protestant weekly dealing with current religious thought and developments. There is a demand in Belgium for a weekly or monthly, to bring the Gospel to those disappointed by purely lay education and seeking a spiritual basis in life. Religious publications in Holland and led revival services at such ports of call as Hong Kong, Shanghai, Tokyo, Manila and Singapore, investigating other religions as compared with Christianity.

Soon after the end of the war, Dr. Tedder plans to make a trip to England and hopes to visit the ravaged European countries. Next winter he plans a 3,200-mile dog team journey to the Arctic Circle to work with the Eskimos and Indians of the North. He has made nine such trips in the past, the last one being completed eight years ago.

After leaving Edmonton, the lecturer will visit Saskatchewan and Manitoba and will then travel to eastern Canada.

Dr. J. Tedder Guest Speaker At Tabernacle

In the prisons and cells of men convicted of murder and who, for these crimes, had been sentenced to death, Dr. John Tedder has spent many hours. In his company, these men spent their last hours, carried on their last conversations, and in most cases made their last appeals for the mercy of God.

Dr. Tedder, in Edmonton for the coming week, Sunday will describe some of his death-house visitations when he speaks at 7:30 p.m. at the Pentecostal Tabernacle, 108 street, south of Jasper avenue. His subject will be "In the Shadow of the Gallows."

Recognized as an able speaker, Dr. Tedder, who makes his headquarters in Portland, is a world traveler and the author of several books on religious subjects, some of them prophetic and others dealing with current events.

In addition, he conducts a correspondence Bible school from Portland.

ADDRESSES DURING WEEK
During the coming week, Dr. Tedder will address meetings every night, Monday through Friday at 7:30 p.m. Sunday morning at 11 a.m. his topic will be "Finding Life by Losing It." On Tuesday he will speak on "The Revelation," Wednesday, "Penitence: A New Beginning," Thursday, "The Achievement of Calvary," Friday, "The Day of Christ."

Monday evening his program will be marked by screening a 1,600-foot motion picture which he made during travels in Japan, China, the Philippines, Borneo and India, dealing with the customs and religions of many peoples. Feature of the film is a "shot" of Ganges River worshippers in India burning the bodies of their dead on the banks of the Ganges.

WORLD TRAVELER

Born and raised in England, Dr. Tedder has traveled in practically every part of the globe. Prior to the war he was in Europe and Asia. He has attended conferences

The annual meeting of the Alberta District of the Lutheran Church Conference held in the Augustana Lutheran Church Feb. 2 to 4 was well attended, and good progress was noted in the congregations of the district during the last year.

PROPER DETAILS

The report supplied the following details of church property destroyed in each of the countries:

France: In November, the Protestant Federation of France announced that 17 churches were totally destroyed. Church buildings in about 40 parishes were seriously damaged. In East France, there are 19 parishes where churches have been so badly damaged that they cannot be used until repairs have been made. In 14 other parishes, damage to churches was less severe. Complete information is not yet available from the Alsatian churches.

LITTLE DAMAGE

Belgium: Relatively little damage was suffered by churches until last summer. The CIMADE (Comite Inter-Mouvements Aupres des Evacues)—Combined Committee for the Care of Evacuees) has urged the Department of Reconstruction to provide huts for holding services in badly damaged areas. The request must be ratified by the French Committee of Ecclesiastical Reconstruction before official action can be taken.

Holland: Seventeen churches were destroyed in Rotterdam and four in the Hague by the Germans "for military reasons." Loss of church property was caused by the bombing of Nijmegen, Flushing and Middleburg.

Says Vital Issues Before All Churches

The issues that confront the Christian churches after the war are vital and challenging, says Evangelist D. Mackintosh, who has promised to speak Sunday night at the Rialto theatre on the dangers that confront Christianity. Attendance at the meetings the evangelist is holding in the theatre continues to increase. This Sunday night he has also promised to discuss the question "Should the Church sit at the Peace Table?"

Evangelist Mackintosh feels that the attitude the church takes at this time will largely determine its ability to meet the issues that have grown out of the present conflict.

Christian Science

"Spirit" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science Churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is John 4:24. One of the Scriptural citations is "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit" (John 3:8). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is "Spirit blesses man, but man cannot tell whence it cometh. By it the sick are healed, the sorrowing are comforted, and the sinning are reformed. These are the effects of one universal God, the invisible good dwelling in eternal Science" (p. 78).

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

GLEN WILLIAMS, already with 12 straight wins, has a possible eight more games in sight—two each in both Grand Challenge and King Edward and four in the Visitors. Bill Morrison, Len Haw and C. Webb are the other members of the high-flying Calgary rink.

George McLaughlin who is Williams' next opponent in the Challenge dropped his first game yesterday, but he has won eight. Either Aspel (Poupe Coupe), or Dalgleish (Grande Prairie) will be in the lower semi-final bracket with Williams after the 9 o'clock draw this morning. Aspel has won six and lost two, while Dalgleish has nine wins as against two losses.

Cecil Runyon's Viking rink was beaten twice yesterday after eight wins in a row. A Aspel knocked Runyon out of the unbeaten class with a 10-2 count in the King Edward on the 11:30 draw, but Runyon came right back with 11-5 win over Sharplin of Coronation in the Visitors.

HERE AND THERE...

BERT ROBERTSON'S Granite quartet ended the Viking curlers' interest in the Challenge on the 7 o'clock draw, the final score being 12-10. Robertson was always up, and held a 9-2 lead after six ends. Runyon counted three on the seventh and eighth, but Robertson got three back on the ninth to be four up going home. The Viking skip did have an outside chance to collect five providing he executed a difficult wick with his last rock. He hit the object rock right on the nose, counting two.

Stan Yakabuski of Tofield moved into the fourth of the Bank of Montreal by virtue of a 9-4 decision over Art Gregor, Alberta Ave. Club, who also is in the eighth of the T. Eaton. The Tofield rink is alive in the Gas Co. event as well as the Bank of Montreal. Bob McClymont plays third rocks for the Yakabuski entry, with Jim McAlister at second and Henry McGintie at lead.

Billy Rose picked up a pair of wins yesterday and raised his total to 11, just one under Williams. The Sedgewick skip, however, has lost two. The Banks rink of Forestburg had a bad day yesterday, losing both games after collecting eight wins out of nine starts during the first four days.

Here are the standings of the leading rinks: Williams, 12-0; Olsen, 10-1; McLaughlin 8-1; Robertson, 8-1; Rose, 11-2; Dalgleish, 9-2; Runyon, 9-2; Yakabuski, 7-2; Aspel, 6-2; Banks, 5-3; Wolfe, 5-3.

Entries for the Northern Alberta British Consols series must be in the hands of James A. McCool, secretary of the Alberta Curling Association, by 12 noon, on Sunday.

Blake Better Than Joliat

Irvin Says His Canadians Greatest Team of All Time

MONTREAL, Feb. 10. — (CP) — Coach Dick Irvin has described today's Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League as "undoubtedly, the greatest hockey team of all time." He added that only a few of the Canadian wonder team of 1930 and 1931 "might" have been able to make the grade with the present squad. That team of the early 30's included Howie Morenz, Aurel Joliat, Pit Lepine, Marty and George Hainsworth.

Admittedly, Dick was a mite annoyed when he made the statements. Montreal sports writers, wise in the ways of getting Irvin really talking, had suggested that the present squad was mighty good by present standards but that just possibly it would not have looked as good against the 1930-31 imports.

"I don't rate those Canadians any super-team," he exploded, recalling that the 1931 team had nosed out his own Chicago Black Hawks that year. "Morenz would make good any time, I imagine," Irvin continued. "I'll concede he could make good on our team today."

"Joliat was a pretty good left wing—but not as good as (Toe) Blake."

"None of the three right wingers who worked with the Joliat-Morenz combine would come close to outsting (Maurice) Richard, or even matching him. Billy Boucher, Art Gagne, Johnny Gagnon—none of them would make our first line today against Richard."

"Lepine was a good defensive hockey player, could kill off penalties, might make our second line today. Marty Burke was a good sound defence player, not as good as (Butch) Bouchard but a pretty fair sort. Hainsworth wasn't as good a goal as (Bill) Durnan. And as for the rest of the Canadian team of '31, where would they fit on our club today? They just wouldn't."

EAC Practice

Coach Bill Drever of the Edmonton Athletic Club entry in the City Junior Hockey League has called a practice for 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Arena. The team will hold another workout late Wednesday night before entering the semi-finals of the city loop.

Canadians Will Play Maple Leafs

Canadians will play Maple Leafs in a scheduled Junior Hockey League game at the Arena tonight, starting at 9 o'clock.

Semi - Finals Are Reached In 4 Events

GLEN WILLIAMS of Calgary, with 12 straight wins, was the only undefeated skip on Friday night out of the 134 rinks competing in the 28th annual bonspiel of the Alberta Curling Association which began in Edmonton last Monday morning.

And at the conclusion of the final draw last night, seven city and three visiting rinks had entered the jewelry stage in four different events. All semi-final brackets had been filled in the Grand Challenge and Bank of Montreal, while two of the four berths in the King Edward and one in the T. Eaton fours were occupied.

Williams collected three more victories on Friday to bring his string up to 12 and he was in the jewelry of both the Challenge and King Edward. Bob Edwards of Alberta Ave. and George McLaughlin were the other three in the Challenge fours. Robertson now meets Edwards and McLaughlin will oppose Williams in the next round.

E. B. Olson of the Royal also marked up three wins yesterday. He beat Harold Ritchie 10-7 in the North West Brewery event at 11:30, stopped E. V. Key of Hughenden 10-8 in the King Edward sixteens at 2 o'clock and followed with a 10-9 decision over V. H. Nelson of Holden in the North West Brewery at 7 o'clock. Olson now has 10 wins and only one loss, which ranks him next to Williams.

A. M. Dalgleish handed George McLaughlin his first defeat of the 'spiel in the King Edward on the 2 o'clock draw, the score being 7-5. McLaughlin, however, came back and took out T. G. Willis of the Royal to enter the fours of the Challenge. Dalgleish has won nine and lost two.

Billy Rose also chalked up two more triumphs, making 11 in all, as against two losses. The Sedgewick skip beat Spjolle of Camrose 11-7 and won from G. R. Sharp of Sexsmith by the same count.

Stan Yakabuski of Tofield, Charlie Croft of the Granite, Bill Nisbet of the Thistle and H. G. Shaw of Alberta Ave. Club are the four reading from the top—in the Bank of Montreal.

Handicapper of Kerrobert is in the top bracket and Williams in the lower of the King Edward fours. W. Gutowski of Daysland meets E. B. Olson and A. Aspel of Poupe Coupe will battle it out with A. M. Dalgleish for the other two semi-final vacancies.

RCMP-City Police came out in the fourth of the T. Eaton competition on the final draw Friday.

The Gutowski versus Olsen and Aspel-Dalgleish games to go into the King Edward fours were scheduled for the 9 o'clock draw this morning.

Williams won from A. Banks of Forestburg on the 4:30 draw by a score of 10-8 to enter the Challenge jewelry. He defeated Bill Gray of the Granite by the same score going into the eights of the King Edward at 2 o'clock and eliminated J. A. McLaren's Royal rink to reach the semi-final on the 7 o'clock, the score again being 10-8.

The Runyon rink from Viking ran into two snags on Friday after marking up eight successive victories. Aspel of Poupe Coupe stopped Runyon 10-2 in the King Edward on the 11:30 draw, but the Tofield skip then came back with an 11-5 win over W. L. Sharplin of Coronation in the Visitors on the 2 o'clock. Bert Robertson's Granite rink then came along and handed the Runyon quartet a 12-8 setback to enter the Challenge fours on the 7 o'clock draw.

Stan Yakabuski of Tofield chalked up a pair of victories and made certain of a slice of the Bank of Montreal jewelry. The Tofielders beat Bert Edwards, Royal, 15-10 in the Gas Co. event on the 4:30 and then turned back Art Gregor's Alberta Ave. curlers 9-4 to go into the Bank of Montreal semi-finals. Cliff Manahan's strong Royal rink dropped another game on the early draw yesterday, losing to Harold Haight's Calgarys 10-6. Manahan, however, bounced back with an 11-8 win over Anderson of LaGlac on the final draw.

Semi-Finals Start Monday

Leafs, EAC (2), Mapleos In Midget Puck Playoffs

The two Maple Leaf teams—Maple Leafs and Mapleos—and Edmonton Athletic Club (2) will play off for the championship of the City Midget Hockey League. Maple Leafs and EAC (2) wound up the schedule in a first place tie while Mapleos finished next. Semi-finals are scheduled to start Monday night.

Maple Leafs and EAC (2) had already made sure of a playoff berth while Mapleos had to win last night to stay in the running. They beat Canadians (1) 10-2 at the 119 Street rink while Maple Leafs won 7-1 over EAC (1) at the 101st Street rink and EAC (2) beat Canadians (2) 8-3 at the South Side. Canadians (2) and EAC (1) were still in the running for a playoff spot until their loss last night.

Ken Watson led the Maple Leafs to victory with two goals and an assist while his line-mates, Jim Stewart and Jack Strate also turned in rousing games. Strate equalized Watson's effort with a pair of counters and an assist while Stewart tallied one and helped in two. Dennis Smith and Phillips tallied the other two for the Leafs while Elwood Shell fired the lone EAC (1) marker in the third period after the winners had taken a 7-0 lead.

The other top place team, EAC (2) was paced by Key Harrington with three goals, but Bradshaw of the Canadians (2) matched the neat effort by firing all three of his team's counters. Herb Gosche, Harry Scott, Jerry Ball, Jack Burchell and Hugh Wilson netted the others for the Clubmen.

Billy McPherson and Lyle McEara showed the way for the Mapleos in their decisive victory, each turning the hat trick with three goals in addition to assisting in one. Ross Hosack also picked up four points, assisting in three and tallying one. Lawrence Calvert with two and Stirling were the other markers for the winners. Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(BUP)—Another golden chapter in the saga of Sonja Henie was completed today with the establishment of a world-record "run average" of more than 15,000 spectators at each of the 18 performances of her ice show at Madison Square Garden.

Lillian Jenkins, director of Garden publicity, said, "this is the greatest run average in the history of entertainment, including all forms of amusements and sports, with the lone exception of horse-racing—which we do not consider in our comparison because of the gambling angle."

A total of more than 275,000 persons attended the 18 New York performances which concluded Sonja's tour of four cities. The New Yorkers paid more than $760,000, bringing the total for the tour to more than $2,167,710. Other cities on the tour were Indianapolis, Detroit and Chicago.

TAXES TAKE BIG PORTION

BILL BURKE, general manager of the Henie show, commented with a smile, "It's no wonder some of the writers have called Sonja Henie 'Henry Morgenthau's pin-up girl', because government taxes will take a large portion of those two millions, getting it off the top and off the performer's salaries—particularly off Sonja's cut. In addition Sonja leaves now for Hollywood to make another picture for International. The movie company will pay her plenty, but actually she'll be working for Morgenthau."

The petite, dimpled blonde—who has made more money out of sport than any athlete in history—attained additional prominence in the sports world during the tour, when her husband, Capt. Dan Topping of the Marines, bought a third interest in the New York Yankee ball club. Topping, millionaire advertising executive, already owned the Brooklyn Dodgers football club.

Since the queen of the ice turned professional in 1936, she has rolled up more money than Dempsey, Tunney, Ruth or any other sports biggie. The "Golden Gals" seven tours grossed more than $10,000,000. She already has made nine movies, none of which yielded her less than $125,000. She receives robust royalties from Henie skates, dolls, mittens, etc.

STARTED AT AGE OF SIX
The skating Cinderella, daughter of a comparatively poor fur dealer in Oslo, Norway, today is mistress of handsome mansions at Beverly Hills, Calif., and Easthampton, Long Island, and she has a swanky apartment on New York's Park Avenue.

All this—and pleasure too: because Sonja loves to skate. At the age of six, she prevailed upon fearful parents to get her a pair of blades. She quickly discovered that figure-skating was her dish. At nine, she won the Oslo Club's junior competition, the beginning of a parade of amateur conquests that included the championship of Norway five times, the world championship ten times and three Olympic crowns.

Now, at 31, Sonja is sitting pretty—but rarely upon the ice, if she can help it.

St. Louis Trims
Cleveland by 7-4
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 10.—(AP)—St. Louis Flyers trounced the Cleveland Barons 7-4 in their American Hockey League game last night before 5,890 spectators.

Morey Rimstad, Bill Kendall and Horeck got two apiece for Flyers. Winky Smith got the other. Tommy Burlington got one for Barons and Bessone and Gasparini scored.

Captives Moved
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The Japanese shifted 177 American prisoners of war, including Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, from a prison camp on Formosa to Manchukuo, the war department reported yesterday. Gen. Wainwright, who became commander in the Philippines after Gen. MacArthur left for Australia early in 1942, was taken prisoner by the Japanese after the surrender of Corregidor, May 6, 1942.

Army, Navy Pats Shade Gremlins To Top League

Army and Navy Pats took over sole possession of first place in the City Girls' Basketball League Friday night when they overcame the RCAF Gremlins 32-30 in the last minutes in a league game at NWAC drill hall. In the first half of the double header Y Aces turned back Y Bees 40-26 in an exhibition.

The Pats were behind 27-26 with only a few minutes remaining, but managed to come through to win. Gladys Limming tied it up on a free throw and Peggy Colville put the winners ahead 29-27. Noel Robertson counted a free throw for the Gremlins and a few seconds afterwards Van Den Ben did the same, making it 29-29.

Gladys Limming made good another free throw and then Connie Strachan clinched the contest by dropping in a long one. Van Den Ben counted a single on the last play of the game for the losers to cut the margin to a pair.

The RCAF girls had led up to the final few minutes. They were ahead 10-7 at the end of the first quarter, 15-13 at half time and 27-22 at three-quarter time.

Peggy Colville led the Pats' scoring parade with 10, but Noel Robertson topped the list with 15 for the Gremlins. May Spence played a great game defensively for the winners in addition to counting five.

Jasper Skiers Continue Work

JASPER, Feb. 10.—It was decided, at a general meeting of the Jasper Ski Club, to continue development on the old location, known as the Lone Pine site, on the north slope of Whistler Mountain overlooking Jasper at an elevation of 4050 feet.

A practice slope—a thousand foot downhill run with a vertical drop of 330 feet—has been built with a winter motor road one and a half miles long connecting the area with the road in the valley below. A completely equipped club house has also been erected.

WAR VETERANS Questions and Answers DEPARTMENT

Information about vocational training for veterans and on re-establishment credit appears in this department today.

War veterans from every branch of the service and dependents of veterans and men still serving are invited by The Edmonton Bulletin to make full use of this department to clear up confusion about their rehabilitation problems.

Letters to the department should be brief with questions clearly stated. Criticism of policy or opinions will not be dealt with here.

The exact regulation dealing with each phase of re-establishment and rehabilitation will be quoted wherever possible.

Letters should be in the hands of the editor early each week to insure publication in the following Saturday's issue. Names and addresses must accompany each letter but only initials or pen names will be published if requested.

QUESTION

Dear Sir: I read your veterans' questions and answers department and find it very enlightening, and would appreciate an answer through your column to the following:

I have had five years' service in the RCAF in Canada, and would like to know if I can obtain any assistance in starting a fox ranch, and if so how much.

I would require from three to five acres of land with buildings, and several hundred dollars to buy breeding stock.

Would I be entitled to the same amount as a grain or livestock farmer?

I have had 13 years' experience in this work and am anxious to make a start for myself.

Respectfully yours,
"SPUD".

Whitehorse, Y.T.

ANSWER

Because we feel that you would best be served by application for assistance under the Veterans Land Act we are quoting some of the provisions of this act for your guidance. If you go under the terms of this act you are not eligible for re-establishment credit on your discharge. As there is probably no regional office of the Veterans Land Act administration in the Whitehorse area, we advise you to write the Veterans Land Act regional office supervisor, 9901 Jasper avenue, Edmonton, giving all particulars of what you plan to do after your discharge.

Here are some salient points about assistance under the Veterans Land Act:

The Veterans Land Act, which is administered by a director under the minister of veterans' affairs, gives a new meaning to the term land settlement in the rehabilitation of ex-servicemen.

The main purpose of the Act is to assist suitably qualified ex-servicemen to buy and own a farm to be operated on a full-time farming basis; or to buy and own a rural or semi-rural home (small holding) with the main income earned from industrial or other employment in the community.

To give practical effect to this purpose, the Act provides—three distinct types of establishment, that the state shall bear a substantial part of the cost of each establishment by means of a conditional grant; that each ex-serviceman assisted shall be qualified for the particular type of settlement and that he shall pay down 10% of the cost of land and buildings at the time of his establishment.

TYPES OF ESTABLISHMENT

(a) Full-time farming. For veteran who have practical experience in farm operation assistance is available to engage in farming as a full-time occupation. Encouragement will be given to sustain the "family farm" as a Canadian institution.

(b) Small holding (coupled with industrial or other employment). For veterans whose normal sphere in Canadian society is in industry or commerce or in the field of agricultural employment, provision is made for assistance to be established in a good home with small acreage of land outside the high taxation areas. Mechanics, carpenters, masons, electricians, factory workers and white collar men may benefit. It is believed that seriously disabled veterans may be specially interested in this type of semi-rural settlement.

(c) Small holding (coupled with commercial fishing).

For the veteran whose normal occupation is in the commercial fishing industry provision is made to assist him to purchase a comfortable home, a plot of ground and fishing equipment required for his occupation.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS
The Act provides a maximum of $6,000 to cover cost of land, improvements, livestock and equipment, including fishing equipment. The maximum for land and improvements is $4,800; maximum for livestock and equipment or fishing equipment is $1,200.

QUESTION

Dear Sir: I see by The Edmonton Bulletin that the Government has seen to it that returned soldiers shall be well taken care of. I notice the many benefits the Canadian soldiers can benefit by.

I wonder if you could advise me as to where I could inquire about a training school. I would like to take up machine work providing I receive pay while training. I have wandered all over the city looking for part-time work but there seems to be nothing doing.

I am working but the wages are not sufficient to keep my family in comfort. We are tired going from one job to another.

So if you could advise me as to where I could secure extra employment I would appreciate very much or advise me as to where I could secure these rehabilitation benefits. I served my country here in Canada and overseas.

I am married and have three of a family. I would like a training course if possible with a job while training.

Yours Truly,
Edmonton. Discharged Soldier.

ANSWER

A preliminary interview with the Veterans Welfare officer would put you clear on the subject of vocational training. In Edmonton he is W. R. McLaren, with offices at 10019 101A avenue. We are of the opinion that you would be unable to do part time work and also take a vocational training course. Here is some information concerning the training:

It is not expected that an ex-serviceman newly discharged from the services will be in a position to finance this vocational training. Therefore, under the order, once training is approved, they become eligible for maintenance grants. In the case of a single man or woman, these grants amount to $60.00 per month. Married men receive $80.00 per month, but, in addition, dependents' allowances listed previously may be paid. If it is necessary to leave the home community for training, then a further grant of $5.00 weekly may be made to a married person or single person.

These grants in most cases will not be paid to a discharged man or woman for any period in excess of 52 weeks but in exceptional cases, if the period of service is longer the grants may be extended sufficiently to complete training provided the full training period does not exceed the length of service. In certain cases the grants may be supplemented by commuting allowances. Those in hospital for treatment may be permitted to take approved correspondence courses with fees paid. This privilege also may be extended to those employed, in cases

NOTED ARTIST COMING HERE—Ruth Draper, internationally famous solo-dramatist, who comes to the Empire theatre on Friday, Feb. 23. In a letter to Mrs. Jack Weber, chairman of the War Services Council committee arranging her visit here, Miss Draper said, "There is no reason why I should not stay in Edmonton over Saturday and Sunday so that I can visit the boys in the hospitals and put on a show or two for them." Proceeds from Miss Draper's performance will be devoted to the military hospital work of the War Services Council. She is shown above standing beside a picture of herself in one of her most famous roles.

Prize List Out For Stock Show

Prize lists for the Edmonton Exhibition Association's spring show have been mailed to exhibitors. It was announced Saturday by Charles E. Wilson, managing director of the association.

The show is scheduled to be held at the arena on April 10 to 13 inclusive. The Alberta Provincial Cattle and Horse Breeders' Associations, and the provincial department of agriculture are co-operating with the association in staging the show.

A meeting of the Alberta Clydesdale Horse Breeders' Association will be held at the exhibition office on Tuesday, April 10 at 8 p.m. It was announced.

Entries in the auction sale of purebred bulls close on March 12, and for all other show classes on March 24.

The show will feature the usual junior calf feeding competitions, and also junior judging competitions where part time or evening courses are not available.

QUESTION

Dear Sir: I am desirous of securing some information regarding the rehabilitation of returned servicemen. I am expecting my husband home shortly as he has been overseas for three and a half years and I would like to know the setup regarding building a home.

I heard that the government will pay one-third of the cost of building a new home and allow you to pay the balance as rent with a very small interest charge and that the first year or two would be free of taxes.

If you would be so kind as to give me some information on the above it would be greatly appreciated.

Yours Very Truly,
Mrs. Dorothy Carier.

Edmonton.

ANSWER

The simplest way that you could get your questions completely and correctly answered would be to visit the National Housing Administration in the Wilkin Bldg., on Jasper Avenue. There is not at present specific regulations providing assistance for veterans in building homes other than those applying to the general public.

Medical Officers From Edmonton Doing Fine Work

Edmonton can well be proud of the job that city men attached to medical units in Italy are doing, according to Major J. S. "Smitty" Gardner, RCAMC, former medical officer with No. 4 Casualty Clearing Station in the one-time land of Fascist splendor.

Major Gardner, who returned recently from the Italian front after nearly five years' overseas service, is now attached to the staff of Col. Belcher hospital in Calgary, and visited Edmonton this week. His wife and small son reside at the Algonquin apartments here.

LAUDS EDMONTONIANS

ians with whom he was associated in the Italian campaign.

Such city medical officers as Maj. Harry Weinlos, and Maj. Harold Richard, who were in the clearing station, and Maj. E. B. Quail, attached to nearby Canadian Corps headquarters, together with the men of the unit, had their hands full and were handling their job admirably, Maj. Gardner said.

Asked about the care German troops were able to give their battle casualties as compared with the care Canadians received, the officer said he had spoken to a number of German prisoners, and with British troops who had been made captive and subsequently escaped from the Nazis, and it was his belief that considering the fact the enemy had poor facilities at his disposal, enemy medics were handling their situation well.

"They are handicapped by poor equipment, and also the fact that they must operate while their army is retreating," he stated. "On the whole, they treated our captured troops as well as they could under the circumstances."

UNIVERSITY GRADUATE

The officer, a graduate of the University of Alberta, enlisted at the outbreak of war in September, 1939, and went overseas in January, 1940, serving for several years in England. He went to Italy with his unit in 1943.

At his present post, the major is able to keep in touch with the men in Italy, through his contact with troops returning to Calgary for hospitalization. He takes a personal interest in veterans of the Italian campaign.

Hoarder Fined

MONTREAL, Feb. 10.—(CP)—Joseph Vermette, father of eight children, yesterday was fined $20, including costs, on charges of hoarding foodstuffs beyond his normal requirements. Judge Rene Berge said he was making the fine a nominal one because of the size of Vermette's family.

Employee of Bank Given New Post

LeRoy A. McAuley, a member of the staff of the Edmonton branch of the Bank of Toronto since September, 1939, has been promoted and transferred to the Regina branch, where he will take over as accountant. He leaves this week end to assume his new duties.

Mr. McAuley has been with the bank for 18 years. He started his banking career at the branch in Welwyn, Sask., and later was transferred to the main branch in Winnipeg.

In 1940 he joined the 2nd (K) Battalion Edmonton Fusiliers as a private and was given commission rank in November, 1942. He was one of the most popular officers in the unit.

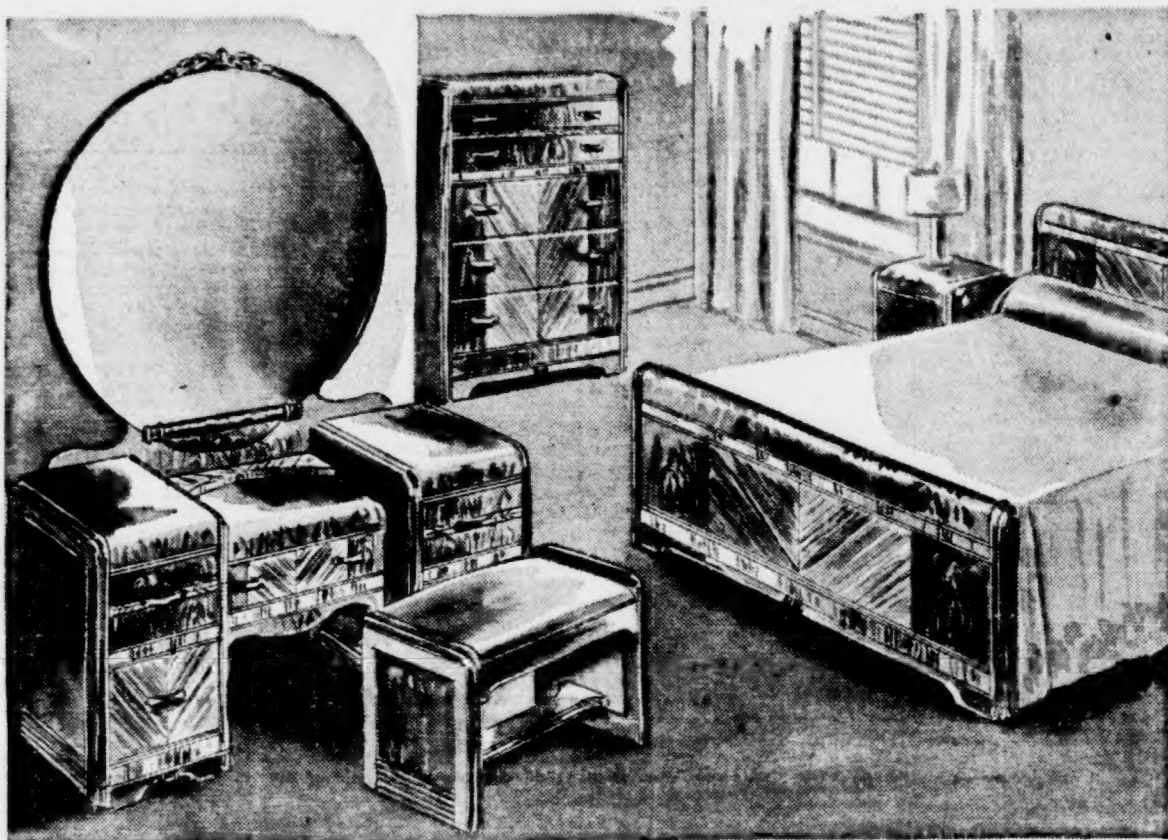

Mrs. McAuley and family will remain in Edmonton for a short time before going to Regina.

EDMONTON REGIMENT VETERAN BACK AT WORK—Joe Lieberman at the left above is back at his old trade of barbering after more than four years of service in the army as a member of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. It's a bit strange to be clipping hair again, he admits, but he's getting used to it gradually. Joe Kosick is the customer receiving the tonsorial attention from Joe. In the far chair Barber John Klymko is looking after the needs of John Brown. The scene is in Macey's Barber Shop and Beauty Salon at 10339 Jasper Avenue, operated by Mr. Lieberman.

In Battle of Readjustment

Vet Finds Marriage Big Help

By JACK DELONG

A young fellow who is suffering from post-discharge restlessness after years in the armed services should get married. The responsibility of married life will drive that restlessness away in a hurry.

That's the advice given by Joseph Lieberman of 10028 106 avenue, who served for four years with The Loyal Edmonton Regiment with which he enlisted on September 6, 1939.

Lieberman is back at work again as a barber in Macey's Barber Shop and Beauty Salon, which he operates at 10339 Jasper avenue.

TAKES OWN ADVICE

There's a very good chance that Lieberman's advice is pretty sound because he took it himself. The former soldier was married since his discharge from the forces and now has a baby son, two months of age.

"After the regularity of the army life a single fellow is apt to become plain lazy unless he speedily takes on some new responsibilities and I think getting married is one of the best ways of becoming readjusted to civilian life," Mr. Lieberman said recently.

In his own case it worked out that way, he said.

"You miss the regularity of the army life at first and if you are not careful you become very lazy after discharge. A fellow needs new responsibilities at once. Married life, with responsibilities of a home, is a good cure for what may all you," he pointed out.

SUFFERED BACK INJURY

Lieberman suffered a severe back injury when the truck in which he was riding overturned during a blackout while its occupants were engaged in chasing fifth columnists over the English country side. Several of his companions were also injured.

After a lengthy period in hospital, Lieberman was assigned to Canadian Army Headquarters. There it became known that he was a former barber. As a result he was called in by the leading Canadian Army commanders to do some odd jobs.

Among his "customers" were General A. G. L. McNaughton, then commanding the Canadian Army overseas, General H. G. H. Crerar, now commanding the First Canadian Army in Western Europe, Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, VC, DSO, MC, now commanding the Pacific Command of the Canadian Army, and Maj.-Gen. G. G. Simonds, a Canadian divisional commander overseas.

"They were all fine fellows to work for. They all wanted short hair cuts and wanted you to get finished in a hurry. They were not nearly so fussy as most people that walk into your shop now," the former soldier said.

MET MONTGOMERY

Lieberman also met General

Montgomery, Allied deputy commander in Western Europe.

"Monty seemed like a good fellow too," Lieberman said.

He met the famed British commander when he was conferring with General Crerar at Canadian Army Headquarters.

Lieberman returned to his unit after his spell of duty at headquarters but he just couldn't take it any more and collapsed while on a hard night's sleep.

He was returned to Canada and discharged on medical grounds. Nearly every former Edmonton Regimental pal visits his shop on returning from overseas.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION:

What do you think of the proposal of the Federation of Community Leagues that water rates be reduced from the $1.12 to $1 minimum?

THE ANSWERS:

MRS. HELEN WATERHOUSE, housewife: Such a reduction would mean very little in the average household budget. I understand that water is supplied practically at cost. I think an application for reduction in electric and power rates would gain more for the consumer.

MRS. PEARL BATES, housewife: I consider there should be a general revision of the rates charged by city owned utilities, and these rates revised in the light of a fair profit on operation for the services rendered.

HARRY HARVEY, accountant: The day cannot be far distant when a general downward revision can be made in the rates for utilities supplied by the city. I understand that there is only a small amount of debt owing by the five utilities which could be retired within the next few years to bring lower rates benefits to consumers.

Naval Officer

Drama Contests Get Underway At University

Competition was keen Friday night at the University of Alberta inter-year plays were staged to a packed house.

The first play was presented by the junior class under the direction of Harrison White. The play, entitled "The Confession," and written by Percival Wilde is the story of a bank clerk who is forced to make a choice between accepting a bribe or betraying one of his oldest friends. The part of the clerk was taken by Delbert Hunter. He was well supported by the rest of the cast: Gladys Hutchins, Lucille Cole, William Archer, Anita Heckley and Harold Calkins.

The senior class presented "The Twelve Pound Look," by J. M. Barrie. The story is of a man who has his pride pricked when his first wife returns to tell him what she thinks of him. The leading parts are played by Stan Sawicki and Doris McWhinney. They are supported by Elizabeth McWhinney as the second wife, Mar MacLeod is the director.

"For Jones T" by Warren Smith and directed by Wanda Young, was written at the Banff School of Fine Arts. The lead, that of an old school teacher, which the school board desires to retire, is taken by Sverre Solberg. The school board is well portrayed by Campbell Young, Berta Loree, Althea Mitchell, Joan Virtue, Lois MacLean and Cecil Casack.

The last play of the evening is "The Boat" by Chekov and directed by Madeline Singer. The story of the tempestuous Russian landlord who is determined to collect his rent from the beautiful widow, and ends by marrying her, is played by Lawrence Levine. The widow is played by Gwyneth Jones and the servant by Peter Robinson.

Letter Reveals V-Bomb Havoc

A vivid description of the effects of the German V-2 bomb was received by a letter sent by Mrs. Florence Wahely of Romford, Essex, England, to her brother, John C. Wilson, 3000 44th street. Mrs. Wahely, a letter told of the effects of the bomb on her home recently and the plucking at about 2:45 of a V-2 bomb in the next street.

"Six houses crumbled to ruins," the letter stated, "and 300 were damaged. Flames blew into my room, all the windows were knocked out and on many houses roofs were blown completely off. Ceilings were cracked, doors knocked down, furniture scratched with broken glass, curtains reduced to shreds."

Mrs. Wahely described the V-2 bomb as a "big black cylinder" and said it was "very noisy" and "very fast". She said it was "very dangerous" and "very scary".

Join the "25 Club" and Buy War Savings Stamps Regularly

It's One Way to Hasten Their Homecoming!

Canada Food Industries have shouldered the responsibility of raising $2,000,000 through the sale of War Savings Stamps as one way of hastening the homecoming of our fighting men, and ask your cooperation through the regular and systematic purchase of War Savings Stamps in Edmonton stores.

Here's What Your Thrifty War Savings Stamps Will Do For You:

The "25 Club" book of the year is obtainable at Johnstone Walker's at the Stamp Booth at Nations Dept.

Each of the "25 Club" books contains the twelve month "25 Club" stamping program for eight stamps per month, two 25c stamps per week for a year—a total saving of $24.00 and if these stamps, during the year, are redeemed at War Savings Certificates they will give you a return at maturity, of $30.00. (Certificates valued at $5.00, $10.00 and $25.00 may be purchased at any Bank or Post Office in exchange for stamps). This increase of 25% represents interest at 3% compounded semi-annually.

No income tax is payable on the difference between purchase price and redemption value of War Savings Certificates.

Join the "25 Club" and hasten their victorious homecoming, and when the War is over, "have taken the count" and you will have shown their natural color. War Savings Certificates will pay for the things you want to buy—so keep on saving till the job is done—then take your choice of the things to come.

By increasing your weekly stamp purchases to four 25c stamps per week, your savings will be about double the above estimates.

Use Maturing Victory Loan (War Bond) Coupons to Buy Stamps, War Savings Certificates and More Victory Bonds in the Coming 8th Victory Loan!

Turkeys Bring Large Revenue This Province

Alberta turkey breeders, noted for quality of birds for Canadian festive tables, form an important section of poultry operators in this province. Turkey production has contributed for many years past a large portion of income received by the Alberta poultry industry.

Back of these fine meat birds lies a record of breeding achieved by the Alberta Turkey Breeders' association. Under the plan operating now for many years the stock is inspected by provincial poultry officials as to type and standard. On a record of merit, the birds are banded on maturity in three grades, special A, AA and A quality young toms and young hens.

Four breeds are included: Bronze, White Holland, Bourbon Red and Narragansett.

A recent national poultry conference set up a special turkey committee which was so impressed by the banding system of the prairie provinces as to unanimously agree, "That a unified approval banding policy should be implemented across Canada at an early date and that the approval system in use in the western provinces could be used as a basis."

ROP Program Builds Fine Poultry Stock

Inherited laying ability of Canadian hens is said to be real for the heavy egg production of this country. This ability has been bred into the flocks over a lengthy period of years, due in the main, to the unremitting efforts of record-of-performance poultry breeders.

Through ROP the quality of generations of breeding stock are established by a system of trapping, pedigree breeding and progeny testing. To qualify standard pure-bred birds must lay at least 200 eggs averaging 24 ounces per egg in 365 days. Started 25 years ago, 1942 saw 38 per cent of all birds entered for this strict test qualify Alberta breeders have shared in this work.

There were 18 poultry breeders in the province who in 1944 trapped and raised 2,500 hens under dominion inspection and strict regulations. Their stock formed the basis for the registered and pedigreed birds of highest quality with assured production. The breeders of record-of-performance stock have merited and drawn high commendation for the contribution made towards better quality.

DOUGHNUTS

CUT ME OUT

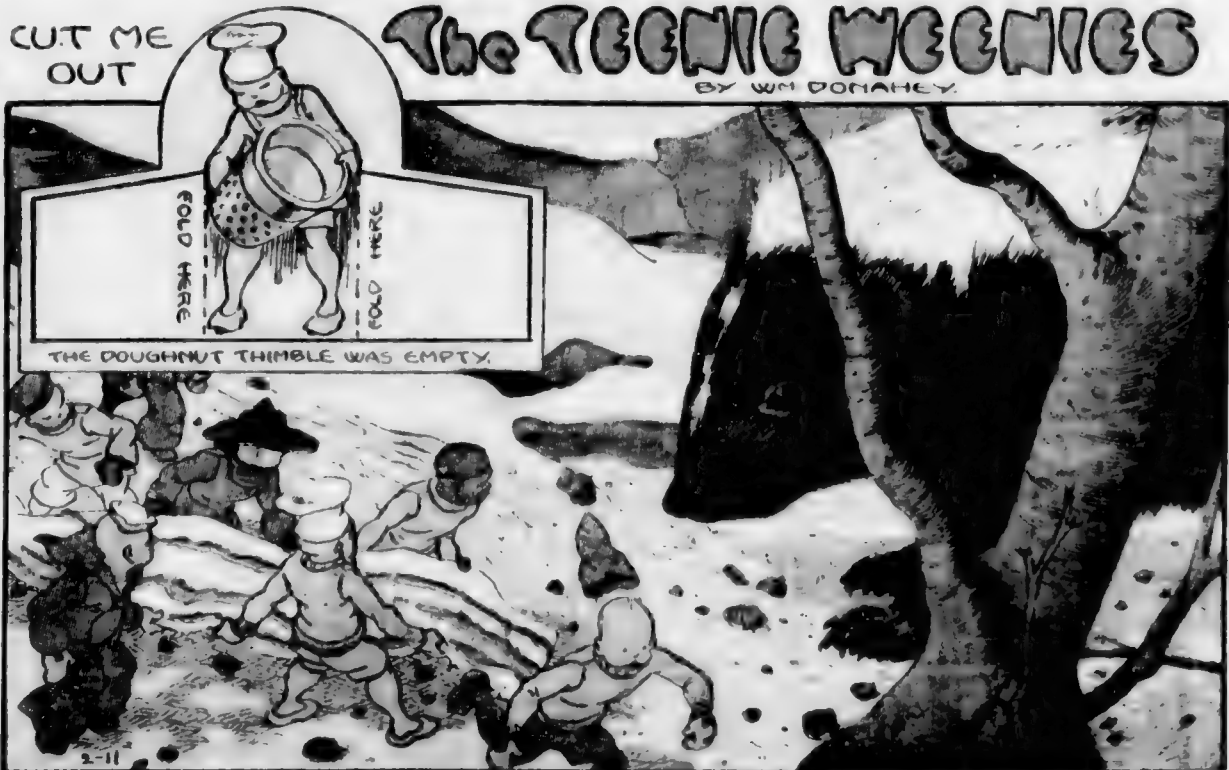

"SAY! When are we going to get some more doughnuts?" asked the Dunce, who had strolled into the Teenie Weenie kitchen.

The Cook set down the cherry seed jar of spice with which he had been seasoning a stuffed raisin, wiped his hands on his apron, and picked up the thimble in which he kept the Teenie Weenie supply of doughnuts. He turned the thimble upside down and glared at the Dunce.

There was some snow on the ground, but the weather was not cold, and the little chaps sang as they trudged along.

"Say!" shouted the Dunce, interrupting a song. "I smell skunk!" "Stop foolin', boy!" grunted Gogo. "Ole man skunk still snoozin'. He won't come out of his hole till it's walm weathah." "Sometimes skunks do come out before Spring when the weather is mild," put in the Cowboy. "If there is a skunk around here I hope he doesn't smell this bacon," the Dunce exclaimed, and before the words were hardly out of his mouth, the little men came face to face with a skunk. He stepped out from behind a big rock right in the Teenie Weenie's path.

"RUN FOP YOUR LIVES!" screamed the Dunce. In time of danger, Teenie Weenies can move mighty fast. They simply vanished from the spot. The next morning, several of the little men cautiously returned to the place where they had met the skunk, but the bacon was gone and the doughnut thimble is still as empty as Old Mother Hubbard's cupboard.
